DR. PABLO MORALES, LEAD PASTOR

BEWARE OF MYTHS

The background features a textured, layered appearance resembling torn paper or parchment in shades of beige and cream. On the right side, there is a semi-circular graphic element, possibly representing a rising or setting sun or moon, rendered in a light cream color.

1 TIMOTHY 4

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit clearly says that in later times
some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits
and things taught by demons.

<sup>2</sup> Such teachings come through hypocritical liars,
whose consciences have been seared as with a hot iron.

2 TIMOTHY 4

<sup>1</sup> In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus,
who will judge the living and the dead,
and in view of his appearing and his kingdom,
I give you this charge:

2 TIMOTHY 4

<sup>2</sup> Preach the word;
be prepared in season and out of season;
correct, rebuke and encourage with great patience and careful instruction.

2 TIMOTHY 4

<sup>3</sup> For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear.

2 TIMOTHY 4

<sup>4</sup> They will turn their ears
away from the truth
and turn aside to myths.

2 TIMOTHY 4

<sup>5</sup> But you, keep your head in all situations,
endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist,
discharge all the duties of your ministry.

2 TIMOTHY 4

<sup>6</sup> For I am already being poured out
like a drink offering,
and the time for my departure is near.

<sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight,
I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

2 TIMOTHY 4

<sup>8</sup> Now there is in store for me
the crown of righteousness,
which the Lord, the righteous Judge,
will award to me on that day—and not only to me,
but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

MARK 10

<sup>6</sup> “But at the beginning of creation
God ‘made them male and female.’
<sup>7</sup> ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, <sup>8</sup> and the two will become one flesh.’
So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

2 PETER 3

<sup>5</sup> But they deliberately forget that long ago
by God's word the heavens came into being and the earth was formed out of water and by water.
<sup>6</sup> By these waters also the world of that time
was deluged and destroyed.

2 PETER 3

<sup>7</sup> By the same word the present heavens and earth
are reserved for fire,
being kept for the day of judgment
and destruction of the ungodly.

1. WHAT ABOUT ORIGINS?

CHARLES DARWIN

(1809-1882)

1. The Universe is eternal
2. The Bible is a myth
3. Salvation by faith in Jesus is a "damnable doctrine."
4. Christianity is a myth.
5. Did not know biochemistry.
6. Did not know about DNA.
7. Did not understand mutations.
8. Did not know about epigenetics.

(1809-1882)

"I had gradually come,
by this time, to see that
the Old Testament
from its false history
of the world...
was no more to be trusted
than the sacred books
of the Hindus,
or the beliefs of any barbarian."

(1809-1882)

"I can indeed hardly see how anyone ought to wish Christianity to be true...
[it] is a damnable doctrine."

To J. D. Hooker 1 February [1871]<sup>1</sup>

Down. | Beckenham | Kent. S.E.
Febr 1st

My dear Hooker

I return the pamphlets, which I have been very glad to read.— It will be a curious discovery if M<sup>r</sup>. Lowne's observation that boiling does not kill certain moulds is proved true; but then how on earth is the absence of all living things in Pasteur's experiment to be accounted for?—<sup>2</sup> I am always delighted to see a word in favour of Pangenesis, which some day, I believe, will have a resurrection<sup>3</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Dyers paper strikes me as a very able Spencerian production.—<sup>4</sup>

It is often said that all the conditions for the first production of a living organism are now present, which could ever have been present.— But if (& oh what a big if) we could conceive in some warm little pond with all sorts of ammonia & phosphoric salts,—light, heat, electricity &c present, that a protein compound was chemically formed, ready to undergo still more complex changes, at the present day such matter w<sup>d</sup> be instantly devoured, or absorbed, which would not have been the case before living creatures were formed.—

Henrietta makes hardly any progress, & God knows when she will be well.—<sup>5</sup>

I enjoyed much the visit of you four Gentlemen, ie after the Saturday night, when I thought I was quite done for.—<sup>6</sup>

Then, in the deep dark ocean,
something amazing happened.

In warm water, near underwater
volcanoes called black smokers,
some tiny floating bits came together.

bubbles

3.5 billion years ago

These bits were so small that you couldn't possibly see them. They could have dropped from space or bubbled up from under the seabed.

They formed the beginning of life on Earth.

tiny bits

seabed

This first life
was just an incredibly
small shapeless blob,
called a cell.

As time passed cells lived
together, making sticky, slimy mats that grew into mounds as big as pillows.

slimy mat of cells

3 billion years ago

invisible oxygen

first continents

Some cells started using sunlight, water and a gas in the air, to help them grow.

Cells multiplied into billions.
And so the seas clouded with lots of new kinds of life.

Some cells puffed out an invisible gas called oxygen, which completely changed the air and even the colour of the planet.
Circling the globe, the oxygen turned black rocks shades of yellow, red and brown.

invisible oxygen

yum, yum!

Ever so slowly, over millions of years,
cells got more complicated.

They filled with special parts that helped them do new things.

Some began to live together,
even inside each other.

2-1.7 billion years ago

We are the world's first animals.

As the air filled with oxygen, some cells began to use it to grow and grow. So this new gas changed living things for ever.

Cells grew into all kinds of weird and wonderful shapes and sizes. Some of these became the first animals.

And life on Earth
really began
to get going.
