ARTICLES OF RESTATEMENT OF NORTH CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF CHEYENNE, WYOMING

Pursuant to the provisions of the Wyoming Nonprofit Corporation Act (the "Act") the Members and Board of Directors adopt the following Articles of Restatement of North Christian Church of Cheyenne, Wyoming ("Articles"). The Articles constitute an amendment and restatement of the original Articles of Incorporation (then known as the Certificate of Incorporation of "North Cheyenne Church of Christ") filed with the Wyoming Secretary of State on September 12, 1960, as amended on December 10, 1964, July 16, 1985, and December 30, 2003.

Article I

The name of the Corporation is: North Christian Church of Cheyenne, Wyoming, hereinafter referred to as North Christian Church or the Corporation.

Article II

The period of its duration shall be perpetual.

Article III

The Corporation is a religious corporation. The Corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of and pursuant to Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or under the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law), including for such purposes as, but not limited to, establishing and maintaining a church for the support of the gospel and maintenance of religious worship, according to the teachings of the New Testament; to maintain, hold and repair a house of public worship; to acquire, maintain, use and improve any and such real and personal property necessary for the uses and purposes of the Corporation; to encumber, rent, lease, sell, mortgage, convey or otherwise dispose of real and personal property; and to do other activities generally done by religious, charitable and benevolent organizations, in conformity with the laws of the State of Wyoming and the Code. References in these Articles to the "Code" shall be to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time.

Article IV

A. No part of the income or net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any member, director, delegate, or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation maybe paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, and reimbursement may be made for any expenses incurred for the Corporation by any officer, director, delegate, agent or employee, or any other person or corporation, pursuant to and upon authorization of the Board of Directors or its delegate); and provided further that no director, delegate, or officer of the Corporation, or any other private individual shall be entitled to share in any distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation or otherwise. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as otherwise provided in Section 501(h) of the Code. The Corporation shall not participate in or intervene (including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

B. No part of the assets of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any organization whose income or net earnings or any part thereof inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or other individual or any substantial part of the activities of which consists of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

C. Upon liquidation or dissolution, all properties and assets of the Corporation remaining after paying or providing for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Corporation and for necessary expenses thereof, shall be distributed and paid over to such fund, foundation, or Corporation organized and operated for charitable, religious, research, educational or scientific purposes as the Board of Elders shall determine, and shall, at the time, qualify as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or its successor laws.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization which is tax exempt under the provisions of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, during any period that the Corporation is a “private foundation” within the meaning of Section 509 of the Code, the Corporation shall be required to distribute its income for each taxable year of the Corporation at such time and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code; and the Corporation shall be prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941 (d) of the Code, from retaining any excess business holdings in violation of the provisions of Section 4943 (c) of the Code, from making any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, and from making any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945 (d) of the Code.

Article V

The Corporation shall have members for the purpose of ministry only and shall not be considered “members” as that term is defined in W.S. 17-19-140(a)(xxii) as the directors of the Corporation are appointed by the Board of Elders. The criteria and procedures for admission of members shall be as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Article VI
