

MEN'S STUDY

1 TIMOTHY 4:15

Practice these things, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress. Keep a close watch on yourself and on the teaching...

PRAYER OF FORMATION

I am no longer my own, but yours.
Point me to what you will,
rank me with whom you want.
Put me to action,
put me to suffering.
Let me be employed for you,
or laid aside for you.
Exalted for you,
or brought low for you.
Let me be full, let me be empty.
Let me have all things,
let me have nothing.
I yield myself to your desires.
I seek your glory.
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit –
I am yours and you are mine.
Be the center of my life and the ground of all my hopes.

Discussion Questions

1. Having considered your October tasks/what are the main direction's of growth that God is leading you towards?
2. What do you like to read/study? Is this a recent area or has it been of interest for a while?
3. Where do you see studying in the Scriptures? What do those passages tell you about the discipline?
4. What are your habits in reading and studying Scripture? What about theology?
5. Is there a theological topic (could be in the area of systematic theology, biblical theology, historical theology, pastoral theology...) you would like to study in the next year? If so, what is it?
6. How can study and reading draw you closer to and make you more like Jesus?

Tasks for October:

a. Daily prayer and bible reading. If you've fallen off, reinstitute it. Add 10 minutes to what you've been doing.
b. You also need space to consider, so add in 1 Hour without phone, tv, or anything other than pen, paper, scripture, Jesus. Let God bring to your mind, what you need to hear.
c. Consider what is most necessary for you here; daily or weekly habits?
