Church Family News

~ Homecoming Sunday~
NOVEMBER 8~ Next week!

To help our Homecoming go smoothly:

*Arrive early

*Unloading food: We need some ready to unload food as drivers pull up to the walkway by the fellowship hall.

* Those who are able, park out in the field so we can leave the parking lot open for visitors and the elderly.

*Please move closer to the front for worship. (Remember, we don't have assinged seats :)

*Fill in the middle of your pew. Leave room at the ends of each pew especially for visitors. This way if someone comes in later, it helps them find a seat.

*We may need to set up extra chairs in the auditorium. Be ready to help.

*Arrive early to help in any way needed.

~~MEN~~A very important reminder:
On Sundays, if you are signed up to serve, PLEASE meet in the library before service. This will help brother Louis make sure we have everyone we need for worship. Also, If you are not able to serve, please call Louis or David the night before or first thing Sunday morning so they can get a substitute. Thank you so much. This will be very helpful.

"I Can Be a Christian Without the Church"

Many folks today take the view that they can be believers, even Christians, without participating with the church and her functions. They claim that the church has become "institutionalized", caring only for its million dollar buildings that are filled with hypocritical members. But truth be known, a person who makes such a statement may be seeking justification for their personal decision not to participate with the worship and work of the body of Christ. To those who make such assertions, we offer the following scriptural guidance:

☐ Jesus died for the church, He purchased it with His blood. (Eph. 5:25; Acts 20:28)

☐ Jesus Christ is the Savior of the church (the body). (Eph. 5:23)

☐ The Lord adds the saved to the church, to be separated from the church is to be separated from the saved. (Acts 2:47)

☐ The Lord provides spiritual nourishment to the church and He treasures her. One who has nothing to do with the church will miss this. (Eph. 5:29)

☐ God gave Jesus Christ to be the head of the church. (Eph. 1:22; Col. 1:18) If one is not in the church, one is not under the Headship of Christ.

☐ God seeks worshipers to worship Him in spirit and truth. (John 4:24)

☐ Praising God takes place by singing collectively with the church. (Heb. 2:12; Col. 3:16; Eph. 5:19)

☐ Believers must meet together (Heb. 10:24-27). If one purposely neglects meeting with other believers, there's no longer a sacrifice for sins.

☐ Within the church, love, edification, comfort and support are shared. (Rom. 12:10; Eph. 4:29; 1 Thes. 5:11; Gal. 6:2)

Singing this afternoon at 1:00 at the American House. Everyone is invited to come help us bring some joy to the residents there.

And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

Colossians 1:18
