Camp Jabali

Who We Are

Camp Jabali is a nonprofit organization. It is a contiguous 600 acre property located in Newton County, Arkansas. Camp Jabali is dedicated to providing children with quality wilderness camping experiences. The ministry seeks to make outdoor experiences available without charging families to use its facilities.

Our Mission

Camp Jabali works to provide a positive camp environment where children can experience the outdoors, enjoy recreational opportunities, and participate in meaningful activities. Maintaining safe, welcoming camp facilities is central to making these experiences available to the children and communities it serves.

Our Partnership

Fellowship North supports Camp Jabali through monthly financial contributions. Through this partnership, our church family helps sustain a ministry committed to making outdoor experiences accessible to children and providing opportunities for growth and connection.

Our Partnership Doesn't End at Christmas.
