

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

For all the benefits thou givest unto me, O Lord of all goodness, what have I rendered to thee?
Forgetfulness, unthankfulness, and great disobedience. I should have magnified thee; I have neglected thee. I should have prayed unto thee; I have forgotten thee. I should have served thee; I have sinned against thee. In a world full of wickedness, where delights are snares, where dangers are imminent, where sin reigns and death abides - where is my hope? Where is my comfort? It is nowhere but in thy mercy, who has sent thine only Son into the world to save sinners. You, God of my life and Life of my soul, are my only refuge. Create in me a clean heart, and renew a right spirit within me. Order my steps in thy word, make me obedient to thy will, and make thy Son my delight, that living to please thee, I may ever glorify thee, the Father of all goodness and mercy. Amen.

Why Christian?

*What is it within us that seeks spirituality and religion?
And in a world of competing ideas and answers,
why would someone follow Jesus?*
