Living in Faith

Paul's letter to the church in Rome contains a clear and detailed explanation of the gospel message. Paul's thesis statement is summed up in Romans 1:16-17: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes... For in the gospel of righteousness of God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: 'The righteous will live by faith.'"

Paul declares that Jesus is the author and the provider of salvation on the foundation of his sacrificial death on the cross in the place of sinners. This salvation is by grace and through faith in Jesus alone.

The word salvation implies rescue. It not only rescues us from our own sin as it begins the rescue that all creation is groaning for. We yearn for this salvation, to see it in its fullness. We yearn to see all things made new and for corruption to no longer affect our lives. Jesus is the author and pioneer of our faith, of our salvation!

So, what is the result of this salvation for us now? The answer is a reconciled relationship with God (Romans 5:1). We faithfully watch and see what He is doing through His Son to renew. We actively live into this faith trusting His ways. It changes us. We begin to act, speak and pray more and more like Jesus did.

We are disciples of Jesus, rescued and living abundant lives.
