Baptism: God With Us

Jesus' baptism has two functions. The first, God announces the inauguration to the people who He is as He begins public ministry. The Spirit descends and the Father proclaims. Second, His baptism identifies Him as being fully human, God with us.

Jesus submitted to John's baptism, which was for repentance and forgiveness of sins. This is odd, because Jesus was sinless. Jesus was not giving merely an example for us to follow. Others before Him sought forgiveness on behalf of God's people. Study Daniel, Nehemiah, Moses, and Jeremiah to find great examples of this. They wept, prayed, fasted, and repented for sins that they themselves were not personally responsible for. God responded to their repentance with salvation from the world and good news!

Jesus stands as the true and only Messianic representation of God's people, all of God's people. As such, He has the responsibility and right to repent on behalf of all of us. Jesus' baptism not only serves to inaugurate His ministry, but to fulfill all righteousness as it fore-shadows His loving destiny at Calvary!

YOUTH GROUP

Thank you Megan for talking about serving in singleness to our teens and beginning that testimony on Wednesday night. When we split into our small groups, both the Guys and the Girls group had some great conversations! We will continue that discussion for the next two weeks. I am looking forward to it!

Next Sunday, we've got a special Sunday Night Together (SNT) event planned, and it's inspired by one of the greatest holidays ever celebrated on television: Pretzel Day from The Office. As Stanley Hudson once said, "I like pretzel day." Honestly...same, Stanley. Same. So save the date and let's celebrate after church next Sunday!

~ Zac
