

For the Week Beginning June 21, 2026

“Be the Church”

✦ Hebrews 10:23-25

²³Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider how we may spur one another on towards love and good deeds. ²⁵Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another — and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Write down 5 significant observations. Raise 2 significant questions and try to answer them.

Observations	Interpretation (Questions)	Applications

✦ Opening Question:

- Do you naturally lean toward independence or toward needing community? And how has that shaped your faith?

✦ The Living Word: Please read our text for this week.

- Highlight words or phrases that stand out to you.
- Please narrate using your own words.

Verse 23

1. What does it mean to hold fast to our hope?

- What difference does it make that our hope is public, not private?
- In what ways are we tempted to waver in our hope?

2. What is the relationship between our holding fast and God's faithfulness?

Verse 24

3. What does it mean to “consider how we may spur one another on”?

- Why do we need to “consider” how to do this?

4. What are we to spur one another towards?

- What kinds of things help stir up love and good deeds in others?

Verse 25

5. According to v.25, what habit were some believers forming, and why is it dangerous?

- Why is gathering together so important for the Christian life?
- What are some reasons people give for neglecting meeting together?

6. Why do we need more encouragement as “we see the Day approaching”?

- What is “the Day” mentioned in this verse, and how does it affect our understanding of our meetings?

✦ Living the Word/Application:

- What are some practical ways we can “consider” how to encourage one another as a group?
- What helps you personally hold fast to your hope when life feels uncertain or difficult?