

SMALL GROUPS

At St. Andrew, we believe that a sense of belonging fosters personal and spiritual growth. Small groups are places to explore faith, deepen personal relationships, connect over interests, and serve in community with one another. If you are looking for belonging, you'll find it here.

Scan to view the interest form with all classes!

Special Interest Group

A Special Interest group is composed of people who share a common interest in a specific topic or activity. Point of contact: Tricia Arthur

Service/Mission Group

A Service/Mission group regularly engages in service activities within the church or broader community. Point of contact: Tricia Arthur

Support Groups

We offer individual and group support to reduce isolation and build coping skills. Care spans from the youngest to the oldest—no one is outside the circle.

Point of contact:
Rev. Amy Stapleton

Education Classes

We seek to nurture your journey by providing welcoming spaces and quality educational opportunities for adults of all ages, helping each person grow into the fullness of faith.

Point of contact:
Rev. Dr. Felicia George

Season-of-Life Group

A Season-of-Life group is made up of people experiencing the same stage of life. Members join based on their current season and transition out when that season ends, with an invitation to join the next group.

Point of contact: Tricia Arthur

Grow/Covenant Group

A Grow/Covenant Group meets on an ongoing basis. Its focus is to build a safe, confidential, and intimate space for deepening connection and belonging. Members are expected to attend regularly and abide by a group covenant. New participants are added at the facilitator's discretion.

Point of contact: Tricia Arthur

Coordinator of Group Life
Tricia Arthur
groups@gostandrew.com

8/26/26

