

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Contents

May is an interesting time of year. It often seems like a “between” month. It is not summer yet, but we are moving out of spring. School is still in session, but the students definitely begin to experience summer fever. There are lots of plans for summer with changes in schedules, vacations and trips on the calendar and other activities to look forward to - - but not quite yet.

Our spiritual lives can be like that as well. We call this liminal space – or the “between” time – the now but not yet. If we are not careful, we spend time reflecting on the past and looking forward to the future but forget about living in the now. We need to remember that we need to learn from the past, but we can’t change it. We need to plan for the future, but we can’t predict it. All we truly have is today. How will we make the most of it. Also remember that it is in the liminal space that God often does His best work in us.

This idea is playing out in our student ministry right now. We find ourselves in the “between” time. Micah has made such an impact and now God has moved him to a new place. We are searching for God’s person for the next season of our student ministry, but this will not happen overnight. So here we are, in between. But let me assure you that things continue on. Student ministry continues with dedicated and compassionate volunteers. And the search is well underway to find our next Student Pastor.

What can you do during this in between time? You can pray. Pray for God’s person He will call here. Pray for our committee as we continue to search. Pray for our students to step into this season with boldness. And make yourself available to help where you feel led. Take time to encourage a student when you see one. Remember, we are a family – young and old – and we are in this together.

May God continue to bless, even in this liminal space.

Brian

From The Library - Book Club

It is time to SPRING into a new book!

The FBC Book Club will be discussing, If I Run, by Terri Blackstock, for the May meeting.

A war-weary veteran is hired to find a woman whose DNA is found at a crime scene, but the truth about the murder is not what it seems.

Thursday, May 14, 2026

2:00 - 3:00 pm

The Friendship Room, Koinonia Homes, 3113 Ocean Drive

Come and Join Us! (Even if you haven't finished the book and bring a friend!)

Have you read any good books lately?? Please share your favorite books and authors, so we can get those in the library. If you have books to donate. We are taking donations! Don't let your books just collect dust. Read them and then pass them along.

One way to share the love of Jesus is to donate paperback Christian books and Bibles to the Book Ministry. There is a donation box outside the Library, Room 231. Checks can also be given for Bibles to FBC prison ministry. Last month we donated a case of bibles with lots of paperback books to the Nueces County Jail. Your donated book may be the only book to point someone to Jesus. Some of the inmates have not read a book in a very long time. Now they have some time, and the inmates were most appreciative!

Stop by the FBC Library and check out a good book.
