Holy Week

Beginning Sunday we observe the most profound experience of our faith, Holy Week. These seven days capture what is the essence of all that we are to believe. I hope you will make plans to be present for all that we offer for each experience will enhance your understanding of what Easter means.

We begin this week with Palm Sunday. The children of our church will wave palms and immediately after 11AM worship share in an egg hunt. At 2PM, we offer our Adaptive Service followed by an egg hunt.

However, Palm Sunday is more than waving branches; in fact, did you know that when Jesus arrived in Jerusalem that fateful week, there were two other parades that would occur over those seven days? That will be the subject of the sermon Sunday.

On both Palm Sunday and Easter, we are glad to have ASL Interpreter Ruth Brosnahan signing at the 11AM traditional worship services. This is another expression of our desire to communicate the gospel to everyone.

On another note, I am pleased to announce that Bishop Dease and her cabinet have appointed Neil Brooks to our congregation as associate pastor. Neil and his wife Chloe are originally from Vermont. Neil was stationed at Fort Gordon and then received an Associate's degree in Arabic and a Bachelor's degree in Middle Eastern studies from the American Military University. He is graduating from Candler School of Theology in May. I look forward to Neil and Chloe and their three children, Skylar, Olive and Elise, being a part of Wesley. You will hear more about them as we draw closer to June.

I look forward to worshipping with you on what is the most consequential week of the Christian year.

OUR DAILY BREAD

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and for ever."
- Hebrews 13:8

The Bible says, "It is appointed unto men once to die," and to the average person this seems a stark and hopeless situation. Hundreds of philosophies and scores of religions have been invented to circumvent the Word of God. Modern philosophers and psychologists are still trying to make it appear that there is some way out other than the path of Jesus. But people have tried them all, and none of them leads anywhere but down. Christ came to give us the answers to the three enduring problems of sin, sorrow and death. It is Jesus Christ, and He alone, who is also enduring and unchanging, "the same yesterday, today and forever." All other things may change, but Christ remains unchangeable. In the restless sea of human passions Christ stands steadfast and calm, ready to welcome all who will turn to Him and accept the blessings of safety and peace. For we are living in an age of grace, in which God promises that "whosoever will" may come and receive His Son. But this period of grace will not go on indefinitely. We are even now living on borrowed time.

Lord Jesus, even if loved ones, friends, acquaintances change, You are always the same. Thank You for Your unchanging love. Amen.
