LIFEPATH SYSTEMS

Community-based, non-profit organization created specifically to help individuals and their families dealing with substance abuse, mental illnesses, intellectual disabilities, and developmental delays.

If you think that you or someone you care about is facing a life-threatening emergency, including a threat of injury to himself or someone else, call 911 immediately.

If it is not a life-threatening emergency, but a serious mental health crisis requiring professional intervention, call LifePath's 24/7 Crisis Line at 1.877.422.5939.

If an individual is struggling with thoughts of suicide, the Suicide and Crisis Center of North Texas provides trained volunteers 24-hours per day to offer telephone support and information at 214. 828.1000.
