Genesis 1:1

1 In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 2:7

7 then the Lord God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature.

Isaiah 6: 3-5

3 And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!" 4 And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. 5 And I said: "Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!"

Psalms 9:7-8

7 But the Lord sits enthroned forever; he has established his throne for justice, 8 and he judges the world with righteousness; he judges the peoples with uprightness.

James 2:10

10 For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become guilty of all of it.

Exodus 34:6-7

6 The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, 7 keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation."

b. What hope is there in knowing our good works cannot get us right with God?

Discussion Question:

1. After what we learned about mankind, does it change your answer to the first question?

Genesis 1:26-28

Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created them. And God blessed them. And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth"

Genesis 3: 1-7

"Now the serpent was more crafty than any other beast of the field the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, 'Did God actually say, 'you shall not eat of any tree in the garden?' and the woman said to the serpent ' We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden, but God said 'you shall not eat the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.' But the serpent said to the woman, 'You will not surely die. For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing Good and evil.' So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of it's fruit and ate, and she also gave some to her husband who was with her and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. and sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loin clothes"

Genesis 3:8-13

"And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the Garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man and said to him, 'Where are you?' And he said, "I heard the doing of you in the garden and I was afraid, because I was naked and I hid myself.' He said, 'Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?' The man said, 'The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree and I ate. Then the Lord God said to the woman 'what is this that you have done?' The woman said 'The serpent deceived me and I ate."

Jeremiah 2:13

“My people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that can hold no water.”

Ephesians 2:1-3

And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind.

Romans 3:11-12, 23

“None is righteous, no, not one; no one understands; no one seeks for God. All have turned aside; together they have become worthless; no one does good, not even one.” For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God...

James 2:10

For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become guilty of all of it.

Isaiah 64:6

“We have all become like one who is unclean and all of our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment.”

VERSES

John 1:1-3,14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

14. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

John 14:6

I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Isaiah 53:4-5

Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed.

Romans 6:5-6

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin.

1 Peter 1:3

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

Titus 3:3-5

For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit ...

Ephesians 2:8-9

For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

i. After counting the costs, what do you think could hold you back from following Jesus?

Go back to the Spiritual Journey Tool. Where would you place yourself now?

Do you want to put your faith in Jesus?

How can we continue to help you take steps towards Christ?

Mark 1:15-20

and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel." Passing alongside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. And going on a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets. And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed him.

Acts 3:19

Repent therefore, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out.

Luke 9:23-24

And he said to all, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it."

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Philippians 3:7-8

But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ.

TOOLS

1. Times Square

Anyone who has stepped into Times Square understands what it means to be a passive observer, overwhelmed and distracted by all that is around you. This is how many of us start our spiritual journey: a passive observer simply going through life taking in the surroundings. Only when confronted with the facts of this can someone move forward.

2. Questioning

Once moved past Times Square, the next step is Questioning. What do I believe? Why do I believe it? What is my purpose? Who is God? Beginning the process of asking big life questions is the only way to continue on the Spiritual Journey

3. Investigating

True Investigation follows Questioning. Who does the Bible say that God is? Do I understand my need for a relationship? No longer is just asking the question enough, answers must be sought.

Open to change

Once the investigation part of the journey is over one must ask the heart level question “Am I open to change?” Commitment to Christ implies a reorienting of every aspect of life and thus cannot be taken lightly

4. Commitment

Investigation demands a response. There comes a point in every Spiritual journey where you ask the question: Am I all in? Do I understand my need for Jesus? Do I want a relationship with God?

5. Growth

The final point in the spiritual journey is in fact only the beginning. A lifetime of deepening and walking with God await.
