

The Central Fact About Jesus

Mark 10:32–34

May 31, Pastor Brad Henderson

Connect With One Another

- Icebreaker:

What is a challenge you are currently facing that requires God's help?

- Sermon Question:

Was there something from the message that challenged you this Sunday?

Look at the Scriptures

- Mark 10:32–34 is a short passage of great importance in the grand scheme of Scripture. What stands out to you about the interaction between Jesus and the disciples in this passage, and why do you think it was important for the author to include this detail?

Apply to our Lives

- When you think about Jesus dying on the cross as the central point of history, is that something you consistently reflect on and consider how it changes everything in our lives?
- Christ's sacrifice on the cross changed the course of history, including each of our individual stories. In what ways has that sacrifice changed your life?
- What is something that could help you keep Jesus' death on the cross at the center of your mind as something of great importance in your life? How can your Discipleship Community help you stay accountable to this?

Pray for One Another

- Pray for each other's needs and that we become people who always remember with gratitude the sacrifice of Christ on the cross.