HEY, CANDRIA AKA CC

I grew up surrounded by strong women of faith who made sure I knew about Jesus. At twelve years old, He got my full attention, radically saved me, and I've never looked back. Over the years, God has healed, delivered, and completely transformed me—but about ten years ago, I started diving deep into the teachings of Dr. Myles Munroe, Dr. Tony Evans, and Pastor Wilford Darden—and that's when it clicked. I finally understood what it really means to live Kingdom, and now I can't stop helping others see it too.

Becoming Kingdom is for believers tired of religion and ready for something real. It breaks down the six stages of spiritual growth every Kingdom citizen walks through—showing you how to grow, mature, and walk in your true identity. It's time to level up your faith, live with purpose, and move like a citizen of the Kingdom.

IT'S TIME TO GOBUIN THE KINGDOM

OUR KINGDOM COME YOUR KINGDOM COME YOUR KINGDOM COME YOUR KINGDOM COME YO

If we're BEING HONEST

A lot of us are tired. Tired of church as usual. Tired of people saying they love God but living like they don't. Tired of feeling like there's got to be more to this life of faith than just showing up on Sundays, saying the right things, and still feeling empty inside.

KINGDOM COME YOUR KINGDOM COME YOUR KINGDOM COME YOUR KINGDOM COME YOUR KIN

Here's the truth: there is more. God never called us to religion—He called us to intimacy with Him and a life in His Kingdom. And when you start to understand that, everything changes. You stop chasing approval and start walking in authority. You stop wondering who you are and start living like who He made you to be.

This book is about that journey. It's about growing up spiritually—learning the stages of your Kingdom walk, and seeing how God develops your character, your confidence, and your calling along the way. Wherever you are right now—whether you're just discovering faith, starting over, or trying to go deeper—this is your invitation to grow. To become. To live Kingdom for real.

YOU'RE BORN AGAIN.

BORN AGAIN: THE BEGINNING OF THE KINGDOM LIFE

When I was twelve, I didn't know much about theology — all I knew was that Jesus was coming back, and it was going to be terrible for those left behind. I figured I at least needed Jesus for some “fire insurance.” You see, I'd grown up watching the strong women in my family pray, live out their faith through storms, and take time to teach me God's Word. One night, while sitting in a youth church service, satan showed up — in the form of a demon-possessed teen I actually knew. The preacher called that young man up to the stage, commanded the evil spirit to come out, and within minutes, the boy went from cussing and blaspheming to declaring, “Jesus is Lord.”

In that moment, everything I'd ever learned and heard about Jesus became real. I realized I needed Christ Jesus and He wanted me. He wasn't just asking me to attend church — He was inviting me into His family and Kingdom. I didn't realize it then, but I was signing up for a new kind of citizenship. I knew Jesus was real, that God had the power to deliver me from my personal struggles, and that I wanted to spend eternity with a God that merciful and caring. That moment changed me forever. From that day till now, I have devoted my life to the King of the universe. I have learned that salvation isn't just about getting into Heaven — it's about Heaven getting into you!

Being born again isn't about joining a religion; it's the start of a brand-new life. It's the beginning of a love story — where we turn from living to please ourselves and others, and we begin living to please Christ.

We become lifelong learners of Him and His way of doing things — disciples. When you're first born again, your focus shifts to truly knowing God — His heart, His nature, and His character. You begin to understand that God isn't just a name but a title that encompasses the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit working together in perfect unity. In this stage, you start discovering His promises and learning what it means to have His Spirit living within you.

The Holy Spirit becomes the seal of your new identity (Ephesians 1:13–14). At this stage, spiritual disciplines are key. You learn how to pray — not perform. You start reading the Word — not just quoting verses. You show up at church, not out of obligation but because you're building a new family of faith. The goal is to get rooted: find a local church body to belong to, start building community, and let accountability shape your growth. As your relationship with God deepens, those disciplines start shaping who you are and preparing you to run your race. Prayer becomes a daily conversation. Scripture becomes revelation. Church becomes more than a place — it becomes home. And you realize that growth doesn't happen alone — it happens in connection, in accountability, and in surrender.

But here's what most people miss: being born again isn't the finish line — it's the starting point. It's like being handed a passport to a new country, only to realize this one has its own culture, language, and laws — because it's not just a country, it's a Kingdom. Jesus didn't just save us from something — He saved us for something. He wants us to understand how His Kingdom operates so we can live with purpose, power, and peace. This season is all about foundations — discovering who God is, who you are in Him, and what it means to live as part of His family. You're not just learning how to live differently; you're learning where you belong eternally. When you were born again, eternal life didn't start someday — it started that day. Eternal life isn't just living forever; it's living in union with the King right now. Jesus said, "This is eternal life: that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent" (John 17:3). Knowing Him is eternal life — it's relationship, not just reward. To understand that, it helps to know what you've been saved from. The Bible talks about three kinds of death: spiritual death, which began in Eden — separation from God through sin; physical death, when the body returns to dust; and eternal death, which is permanent separation from God for those who reject Christ. But for the believer, death no longer has the final word. Jesus conquered all three. Because of Him, you've passed from death to life (John 5:24).

For unbelievers, there will be a final judgment — the Great White Throne (Revelation 20:11–15), where those who rejected Christ will face eternal separation from God. But believers will stand before a different throne — the Judgment Seat of Christ (2 Corinthians 5:10), also called the Bema Seat — not to be condemned, but to be rewarded. That's where the King evaluates our faithfulness, stewardship, and obedience — our race.

Knowing this changes how you live. You realize every decision, every act of love, and every step of obedience matters in eternity. Eternal life isn't just about escaping hell; it's about experiencing Heaven — now and forever — and living in a way that honors the One who gave it all. The more you learn His heart, the more you'll trust His hand. And that's where your Kingdom story truly begins.

A SIMPLE PRAYER OF SALVATION

If you've never truly invited Jesus to be Lord of your life, or you feel far from Him and want to start again, pray this from your heart:

"Lord Jesus, I believe You are the Son of God. I believe You died for my sins (my rebellion against Your will) and rose again so I could have new life. Today, I turn from my old ways and invite You to live in me. Forgive me, change me, and fill me with Your Spirit. Teach me to walk with You every day. From this moment forward, my life belongs to You. In Jesus' name, Amen."

BABE IN CHRIST: LEARNING WHO YOU ARE AND HOW THE KINGDOM WORKS

So you've been born again — welcome to the family of God and the Kingdom! But now it's time to grow up. Salvation gave you new life, but maturity gives you stability. This stage is all about learning who you are in Christ and unlearning who the world told you to be.

You've been born again in your spirit, but your soul and body didn't get the memo yet.

They're still wired to your old life, old habits, and old reactions. That's why this stage is all about renewal. Now it's time to reprogram how you think, submit your will to God's, and bring your emotions under His rule.

Your mind needs a new mindset — Kingdom software for a Kingdom life. Your emotions have to be trained by truth, not triggered by circumstance. And your body? It's no longer yours to misuse or neglect. It's the temple where the Holy Spirit lives, a vessel for His presence and power (1 Corinthians 6:19–20). In short — salvation saved your spirit, but discipleship transforms your soul.

As a babe in Christ, you're learning what it means to be part of a new family and a new Kingdom. You're developing habits that align with your new nature — prayer, studying the Word, and consistent fellowship.

You're learning God's rule (His order, standards, and values) and beginning to see that His Kingdom operates differently from the world's system (Romans 12:2).

This is where your faith starts getting tested. You'll wrestle with who you were and who you're becoming. You'll realize God's not a genie — He's a Father. And like any good Father, He disciplines His children because He loves them. You'll experience pruning, stretching, and refining, all designed to shape you into the image of Christ.

And here's the good part — even when you stumble, you're still His. Growth takes time, but transformation is guaranteed when you stay connected to the Vine (John 15:4–5).

REAL TALK REFLECTION

Don't rush this stage. This is where you build roots that can handle real storms. Let God renew your mind and reshape your reactions. Don't just believe in Him — become like Him.

And remember this: sin doesn't cancel your citizenship. Falling short doesn't mean you've lost your salvation — it means you've stepped out of alignment with the King's standards. The difference? A citizen sins within the Kingdom and gets corrected by the King. But to abandon your salvation is to renounce your citizenship and walk back into the kingdom of darkness. Stay submitted. Stay covered. Stay Kingdom.

CHAPTER

NUMBER 3

SONSHIP: GROWING THROUGH DISCIPLINE, GAINING FREEDOM

SONSHIP IS A POSITION, NOT A GENDER ROLE

By the time you hit this stage, you're not just learning about God — you're learning to trust Him. Sonship is where relationship turns into responsibility. You start to understand that being in the Kingdom isn't just about blessings; it's about building character that reflects the King.

When I hit this stage in my own walk, life got real. It felt like every area of my life — my emotions, my relationships, my plans — was being tested. I remember asking God, "Why does this feel so hard?" And what He showed me was that He wasn't punishing me; He was parenting me. Hebrews 12:6 says, "For the Lord disciplines those He loves." Growth hurts sometimes, but it's proof that you belong to Him.

This is the stage of refinement — pruning, trials, and learning obedience. You'll face two kinds of challenges:

- Trials — external and temporary pressures that test your endurance (James 1:2-4). Tribulations — internal, long-term struggles that shape your heart (John 16:33).

And through both, you'll experience God's providence — realizing He allows circumstances not to destroy you, but to direct you toward His will (Romans 8:28).

SONSHIP: GROWING THROUGH DISCIPLINE, GAINING FREEDOM

This is also where you begin to understand what truly gives God glory and His will:

- Worshiping Him in spirit and in truth.
- Loving Him enough to obey Him.
- Walking in uninterrupted fellowship with Him.
- Becoming part of a people who reflect His character.

The Sonship stage breaks your pride and builds your dependence. You start dealing with your wounds and issues — the stuff that once drove and controlled you. You stop protecting your flesh and start crucifying it. Freedom doesn't come from avoiding pain; it comes from facing it with faith.

This is where you move toward true intimacy — learning to love God and love people. You begin to recognize that when God convicts you, He's not trying to shame you — He's inviting you to wholeness. You'll grow skilled in the Word — not just quoting it but living it. You'll discover your spiritual gifts and see God's power working through you. You'll understand the philosophy of freedom: that sin and unforgiveness isn't your master anymore — Christ is.

THE RACE BEFORE YOU

Hebrews 12:1 tells us, "Let us run with endurance the race that is set before us." Every believer has a race — a unique assignment and sphere of influence designed by God. This race is your redemptive territory — the space you've been called to bring back under Kingdom order.

This is what Sonship looks like in motion: bringing God's rule, reign, and righteousness into every part of life. Your life becomes a living testimony of redemption — not just in words, but in the way you lead, love, and live.

Your race isn't about competition — it's about completion. You're running to finish well, not to impress people. Paul said it best: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith" (2 Timothy 4:7).

Your FIVE REALMS OF YOUR RACE

As Kingdom sons and daughters, God calls us to take dominion and redeem these five key areas of life — our inheritance zones. These are the places where Heaven's culture should become visible on earth:

01

PERSONAL LIFE: DEVELOP THE CHARACTER OF CHRIST.

Colossians 3:3–17 teaches us to put off the old nature and put on the new — compassion, humility, and love. This is where integrity and self-discipline are born and the fruit of the Spirit is cultivated.

02

FAMILY LIFE: REFLECT THE ORDER AND LOVE OF GOD AT HOME.

Colossians 3:18–21 calls for mutual respect, love, and obedience in families. Kingdom starts in your living room before it shows up in your ministry.

03

CAREER OR SCHOOL LIFE: WORK AS UNTO THE LORD.

Colossians 3:22–4:1 reminds us that excellence is worship. Your workplace is a mission field, not just a paycheck.

04

SPIRITUAL AND CHURCH LIFE: STAY ROOTED IN PRAYER AND PURPOSE.

Colossians 4:2–3 challenges us to be watchful and thankful, partnering with God's plans in the earth.

05

COMMUNITY LIFE: BE SALT AND LIGHT WHERE YOU LIVE.

Colossians 4:5–6 calls us to walk in wisdom toward outsiders and let our speech be seasoned with grace. The goal isn't isolation — it's infiltration with Kingdom influence.

YOUR INHERITANCE

This race — your obedience and faithfulness in these five realms — becomes your inheritance. Every act of obedience, every moment you choose righteousness over compromise, is building something eternal. One day, you'll return these redeemed areas back to Christ at His judgment seat (Romans 14:10–12; 1 Corinthians 3:12–14). What you do on earth echoes in eternity!

REAL TALK REFLECTION

You've been trusted with a race that only you can run. The test of Sonship isn't how fast you go—it's how faithful you stay.

So ask yourself:

- Am I running with focus or drifting in distraction?
- Am I managing my influence or wasting it?
- Am I redeeming my race for His glory or my own?

Remember — sin and disobedience may slow you down, but quitting the race is the only true loss. You don't lose your salvation every time you stumble; you lose ground when you stop getting back up. Sin breaks fellowship, not sonship. You can repent and recover, but only if you keep running.

God's not looking for perfection — He's looking for progress and perseverance. Stay in your lane, fix your eyes on Jesus, and run to win. Your inheritance depends on it.

PRAYER: RUNNING FAITHFULLY

Father, thank You for calling me Your child and trusting me with a Kingdom race. Teach me to run with endurance, integrity, and focus.

Help me to bring Your presence into every part of my life — my home, my work, my relationships, and my community.

When I grow weary, remind me that You're my strength.

When I stumble, draw me back by Your grace.

I surrender my plans, my pace, and my pride, and I fix my eyes on Jesus — the Author and Finisher of my faith.

May my life bring You glory, and may I finish well, hearing You say, "Well done."

In Jesus' name, Amen.

OVERCOMING THE WORLD: LIVING POWERFUL AND PRODUCTIVE

By the time you reach this stage, God has already been shaping your character, pruning your heart, and building your endurance. Now, He's training your hands for battle — teaching you how to live powerfully and productively in a world that doesn't reflect His values or care to. Overcoming the world means learning how to rise above the pull of culture and walk out Kingdom truth, even when everything around you says otherwise.

This is where you start mastering your desires — overcoming the temptation to chase worldly things and replacing them with a hunger for what lasts. You're no longer influenced by sinful trends or cultural beliefs; instead, you filter everything through the Word of God. You begin developing a Kingdom worldview — seeing life through Heaven's lens. You stop asking, "What's popular?" and start asking, "What's Kingdom?"

Spiritually, you start understanding two sides of theology that keep you grounded and growing:

- Positional Theology — Knowing who you are in Christ. You are justified by faith, forgiven, and covered. Christ is your Advocate, your righteousness, your defense.
- Practical Theology — Learning how to live out what you believe every day. You don't just know truth; you apply it. You start thinking, working, loving, and forgiving differently — because Kingdom living is faith in action.

how every circumstance — even the hard stuff — is part of His process. Nothing is wasted. God allows certain things not to destroy you but to develop you. It's His way of bringing His will to pass in your life. You also begin recognizing the divine power and nature that's been working in you all along. The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead is the same Spirit empowering you to overcome, to speak truth, and to advance His Kingdom agenda. You realize that spiritual warfare isn't about fighting people — it's about standing firm in your authority and using the weapons God gave you: prayer, worship, faith, the Word and more. And now you start to see it. You begin noticing how this empowerment flows into your five areas of influence — your personal life, family, career or school, spiritual life, and community life. God's Kingdom doesn't just dwell in your heart; it moves through your hands. The same power that freed you now flows through you to free others. You start managing your life differently, loving people better, and showing up in your sphere with divine purpose.

As you overcome, your belief system shifts. You start to see life through an eternal perspective. Your decisions, habits, and relationships begin to line up with Kingdom values. You're walking in discernment, learning obedience, and seeing healing take root — spiritually, emotionally, and relationally. You're not just talking transformation anymore; you're living it.

In this stage, you also recognize God's providence on a new level. You begin to see

CHAPTER 4

I remember a season when I had to choose between comfort and conviction. Everyone around me was chasing the same success story — money, clout, and free love. But God was whispering something different: “YOUR REWARD DOESN'T COME FROM CULTURE

OR ANYONE ELSE, IT COMES FROM ME.”

That was the first time I realized I wasn't just called to live right; I was called to think differently. That shift changed everything — my decisions, my relationships, my peace!

YOU'RE NOT EMPOWERED TO SURVIVE

culture,
YOU'RE CALLED TO SHIFT IT.

GENESIS 1:26-2, JOHN 17:15-18,
ROMANS 12:28

REAL TALK REFLECTION

Overcoming isn't about perfection — it's about perspective.

Every time you choose truth over trends, purity over pressure, obedience over opinion — you win.

Don't settle for surviving; step into your calling as a culture-shifter.

Let your life preach louder than your words.

BASIC MATURITY: WALKING IN KINGDOM AUTHORITY

This is the season where your walk starts to show. You've learned who God is, you've faced some battles, and now it's time to lead, serve, and multiply. You're no longer a student of Kingdom theory — you're a practitioner of Kingdom life.

Basic maturity is marked by peace, power, and purpose — the kind of peace Philippians 4:7 describes: “the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding.” This peace keeps you steady when everything around you shakes. It's the mental and spiritual stability you need to engage a world that's chaotic, immoral, and loud.

You start living from a Philosophy of Peace. You've learned how to be at peace with God through a lifestyle of repentance and forgiveness — and at peace with yourself through endurance. You begin walking in the freedom of Christ — not trying to earn love, but living from it. That peace gives you the capacity to think clearly, lead boldly, and stay Kingdom-minded when the world acts crazy. And now that you've reached this level of maturity, it's time to take more responsibility in the Kingdom. Paul warned that spiritual babes shouldn't lead (1 Timothy 3:6) — not because they're unworthy, but because leadership requires a higher level of accountability. Despite cultural trends that promote charisma over character, the Church and the world need mature Kingdom citizens in positions of influence — those who can lead with wisdom, love, and sound doctrine.

You also begin to understand leadership and servanthood. Real leadership isn't about titles — it's about towel ministry. Jesus said, “The greatest among you will be your servant” (Matthew 23:11). In this stage, you move from just being ministered to... to becoming a minister. You recognize your spiritual gifts, start walking in them, and see that your calling isn't just to be blessed — it's to be a blessing.

You serve faithfully in your local church, your home, and your community — not because you have to, but because the Kingdom within you compels you to. This is where healthy relationships matter — and where you willingly submit your life to accountability partners of your own choosing. You’ve learned to forgive quickly, speak truth in love, and protect your peace. You’re emotionally steady and spiritually healthy. You know how to build unity instead of drama. You start reproducing Kingdom citizens by discipling others — teaching them what you’ve learned and leading by example.

You recognize that you’re moving toward your calling — pursuing divine purpose and personal assignment. You’re empowered, disciplined, and aware that every time you share God’s truth, you’re being “salt and light” (Matthew 5:13–14). You preserve righteousness in the earth and light up dark places with Kingdom truth.

By this point, you’re engaging culture with the four pillars intact — truth, love, wisdom, and power. You live with eternity in mind, knowing that your legacy isn’t just earthly influence but eternal reward. Your life multiplies impact — reproducing faith, raising Kingdom leaders, and preparing for the day you’ll stand before the King and hear, “Well done.”

REAL TALK REFLECTION

Maturity isn’t just about knowing more — it’s about living more like Christ.

So ask yourself:

- Am I leading with peace, or reacting with pride?
- Am I serving faithfully in my sphere of influence — home, church, or community?
- Have I invited trusted accountability into my life, or am I trying to grow in isolation?

Basic maturity means you stop waiting for permission to lead and start being the example.

The world doesn’t need perfect people; it needs peaceful ones — believers who walk in wisdom, model stability, and live unshakable in a shaky world.

Remember, Kingdom leadership doesn’t start with a microphone — it starts with a towel.

SENIOR MATURITY: LIVING FROM OVERFLOW

You've walked through the stages — from newborn faith to Kingdom authority — and now you're standing in a place of spiritual stability, strength, and stewardship. This is what it looks like to live from overflow. Senior maturity isn't about perfection; it's about partnership. You and the Holy Spirit move together with purpose, clarity, and confidence. You've seen God prove Himself faithful — y'all have history — and now your life and experiences with Him are proof that His Kingdom works.

At this stage, your relationships are healthy because your identity is whole. You're spiritually grounded, emotionally balanced, and missionally focused.

You're not tossed by trends or distracted by drama — you're powerful and productive, walking in the divine rhythm of peace, purpose, and progress. You've learned to abide in Christ (John 15:4–5), and that constant connection keeps you fruitful, even in dry seasons.

You know your high calling — your divine purpose and personal assignment — and you are actively pursuing it. You're empowered, disciplined, and moving in sync with God's will. Your salt-and-light consciousness is alive — you recognize that every conversation, every act of love, and every opportunity to witness is Kingdom business. Every time you speak truth, you push back darkness. Every time you love like Jesus, you preserve righteousness in the earth (Matthew 5:13–16).

In my own life, after three decades of walking with the Lord and running my race, I can assure you that you're going to make it — and the journey is worth everything God requires of you. This faith walk is no joke, but when you reach spiritual maturity, you experience a level of freedom you've never known. Now you know that every test, delay, and detour was actually divine training — shaping your character to reflect His. You walk differently when you understand that nothing was wasted. Senior maturity means you're now reproducing Kingdom citizens and building legacy. You understand the power of generational impact — leaving behind something that outlives you and points back to God's glory. You've become a builder, a mentor, and a multiplier. And as you run your race, your eyes stay fixed on eternity, knowing that one day you'll stand before the Bema Seat — the Judgment Seat of Christ — and hear the words every believer longs for: "Well done, good and faithful servant." As a mature Kingdom citizen, you're confident you'll hear those words because your daily goal is to live in such away that you hear your Father whisper them even now.

CHAPTER 6

Remember, this race isn't given to the swift or the strong, but to those who endure to the end (Ecclesiastes 9:11). As we continue to perfect knowing His Word and enjoying His presence, we live in expectation of His return — able to say like Paul, “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith” (2 Timothy 4:7). Paul was ready to return his five areas of influence back to the King — knowing that great was his reward and that soon, he would behold his Savior face to face.

REAL TALK REFLECTION

Maturity isn't about age; it's about alignment. How you handle what's been entrusted to you reveals who truly reigns in you. Live ready. Stay faithful. Keep your eyes on eternity and your heart anchored in love. The goal isn't to be impressive — it's to be found faithful.

PRAYER

Father, thank You for walking with me through every stage of this Kingdom journey. Help me to live from overflow — rooted in peace, moving in purpose, and led and empowered by Your Spirit. Teach me to finish well, to multiply what You've given me, and to leave a legacy that glorifies You. May my heart reflect Yours, may I stay focused on eternity, and may my affections always be centered on You. In Jesus' name, amen.

CONCLUSION: THE ROAD TO “WELL DONE”

Every Kingdom citizen has to pause and ask: What am I really living for? We prepare for everything else — birthdays, weddings, graduations, retirements — but few of us prepare for the most important appointment of all: the moment we stand before King Jesus. The Judgment Seat of Christ isn't about punishment; it's about assessment. It's when the King will evaluate our words, deeds, motives, and assignments from the time we were born again until the day we leave this earth. Everything we've done — our Kingdom wins and wasted moments — will pass through the fire. What's eternal will remain. What's empty will burn away.

“BEGIN WITH THE END IN MIND.”

STEPHEN COVEY

This is where the race becomes real. Every prayer you've prayed, every person you've served, every act of obedience — it all counts. Scripture says, “We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad” (2 Corinthians 5:10). For the faithful, that moment will bring indescribable joy — the joy of hearing, “Well done, good and faithful servant.” But for others, it will bring sorrow because they'll realize how much more could've been done if they'd fully surrendered.

At the end of this life, it won't be about titles, platforms, or applause. The only thing that will matter is stewardship — what we did with what the King entrusted to us. Did we multiply what He gave, or did we bury it? Did we love well, lead well, and live like we belonged to another Kingdom? This is the road to “Well Done” — living every day as if you'll see your King tonight.

You start to see now that nothing in your journey was wasted. Every test, every pruning, every delay — it was all divine training, shaping you to reflect His glory. The beauty of this race is the same grace that saved you is the same grace that empowers you to finish strong.

REAL TALK REFLECTION

Heaven keeps receipts. Live with eternity in mind. Make every day a down payment on your “Well done.” Don’t just talk Kingdom — become it.

PRAYER

King Jesus, thank You for saving me, shaping me, and trusting me with Your Kingdom work. Help me live every day with purpose, integrity, and eternal focus. Teach me to steward well with a repentant heart, to love people like You do, and to never lose sight of the finish line. When my race is over, let my life echo one sound — “Well done.” Amen.

Thank you

WHICH ONES MAY BE SLOWING YOUR GROWTH?

5. GOD HAS GIVEN EVERY BELIEVER A RACE TO RUN.

WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE ARE THE KEY AREAS OF INFLUENCE OR RESPONSIBILITY GOD HAS ENTRUSTED TO YOU IN THIS SEASON?

6. IF YOU STOOD BEFORE CHRIST TODAY AT THE JUDGMENT SEAT, WHAT PARTS OF YOUR LIFE WOULD YOU FEEL CONFIDENT OFFERING TO HIM?

WHAT PARTS MIGHT NEED REPENTANCE, CHANGE, OR SURRENDER?

FINAL REFLECTION

7. WHO ARE THE PEOPLE GOD HAS PLACED IN YOUR LIFE THAT YOU ARE MEANT TO INFLUENCE, SERVE, OR DISCIPLE?

8. WHAT FEARS, DISTRACTIONS, OR PERSONAL STRUGGLES HAVE THE GREATEST POTENTIAL TO SLOW DOWN YOUR KINGDOM RACE?

9. IMAGINE YOUR LIFE TEN YEARS FROM NOW IF YOU REMAIN FAITHFUL TO GOD'S CALLING.

WHAT KIND OF PERSON DO YOU BELIEVE YOU WILL HAVE BECOME?

FINAL REFLECTION

10. WHEN YOUR RACE IS FINISHED AND YOU STAND BEFORE KING JESUS, WHAT DO YOU HOPE YOUR LIFE WILL SAY ABOUT YOU?

YOUR KINGDOM COMMITMENT

TAKE A MOMENT TO WRITE A PERSONAL COMMITMENT BETWEEN YOU AND GOD. WHAT IS ONE DECISION, CHANGE, OR ACTION YOU WILL TAKE MOVING FORWARD SO THAT YOUR LIFE REFLECTS HIS KINGDOM MORE CLEARLY?

YOUR KINGDOM COMMITMENT

Father, thank You for revealing Your Kingdom and inviting me to be part of Your story. Help me to live faithfully, love deeply, and steward well everything You've placed in my hands. Strengthen me to run my race with endurance and humility. May my life bring You glory now and in eternity.

In Jesus' name,
AMEN.

Becoming KINGDOM
MOST PEOPLE THINK
salvation
IS THE FINISH LINE.
BUT WHAT IF IT'S ONLY THE beginning?

Jesus didn't just come to rescue us from sin — He came to invite us into His Kingdom, a life with a new identity, culture, and way of living. Yet many believers know about God without ever learning how to live as true citizens of His Kingdom.

Becoming Kingdom is a guide for the journey every believer must take — growing from spiritual infancy into spiritual maturity. Through biblical insight and personal reflection, this book explores the stages that shape a true Kingdom citizen.

- Being Born Again — the beginning of new life
- Growing as a Babe in Christ — learning identity and truth
- Developing through Sonship — where character is formed through discipline
- Overcoming the World — living with power, wisdom, and purpose
- Walking in Spiritual Maturity — leading, multiplying, and building legacy

This isn't just about believing the right things.

It's about becoming the kind of person who reflects the King.

Inside these pages you'll discover how spiritual growth truly happens, why trials and discipline are part of God's process, how to live with eternity in mind, what it means to run your Kingdom race faithfully, and how to steward your life and influence in a way that echoes into eternity as you prepare to one day stand before Christ.

DON'T JUST TALK KINGDOM.
BECOME IT!
