March 29, 2026

DIGGING DEEPER:

1. This past Sunday did you find yourself identifying with the disciples when they were running into the darkness, or the disciples when they were courageously giving their lives for the cause of Christ?

2. Do you ever feel convicted about how easy it is to be controlled by fear when sharing your faith or standing for your convictions?

Share a time when fear kept you from having the conversation you know you should have had or taking the stand you know you should have taken.

3. If we truly believe in the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus why doesn't that impact who we are and what we live for in a more significant way?

4. How did hearing how each of the Apostles gave their lives for the sake of the gospel increase your faith?

5. What is the difference between believing the resurrection is something Jesus did for you, and knowing the resurrection is something Jesus did in you?

6. How does Christianity being so convenient in America negatively impact the way we live out our faith?
