The Love of God

Barrett is doing a great job for us in preaching about the love of God! We're grateful for his study, his presentation, his spirit, and his devotion. Blessings be on him!

In his daily devotional, New Morning Mercies, Paul David Tripp has this to say about the love of God . . .

"He who has the right to be angry with us and the power to do whatever his anger desires is, in fact, slow to anger. The Bible... is quick to reassure you that he is abounding in love."

One has only to read the parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32) to realize that God is merciful and even eager to hear His children's hearts express remorse and repentance.

Here are a few other passages that talk about God's tender mercies and love for us: Psalm 34, Psalm 51, Psalm 103, Nehemiah 9:16-18, Luke 15, John 3:16, and many, many others.

May you and I bask in this truth this coming week.

And thanks again, Barrett, for reminding us of this marvelous Biblical truth!

Deep Dive

Deep Dive is starting May 17! This year we will be taking a "Deep Dive" into Genesis chapters 26-50. If you have not previously participated in Deep Dive, it can best be described as Tusculum's annual family Bible study. Each week, children in grades K-12 and their parents read 1-2 chapters of the Bible at home. We gather on Sunday afternoons to discuss, review, and add depth to the material read throughout the week. We use games, songs, skits, group discussion, and more to bring the material to life and plant God's word deep in our children's hearts. The primary goal of Deep Dive is to create a community of families studying the Bible together throughout the summer. It is our hope that the study sparks life-changing conversations, both in class and at home, and creates fellowship around God's word that leads to lasting relationships, both for children and parents. If your family would like to participate this summer, please contact Beth Meadows.
