Words from Our Shepherds

For the past several months, we have shared with you a vision of the financial freedom right on our horizon. Thanks to your selfless generosity and God's continued grace, our remaining building debt has dropped to roughly $152,000. The finish line is no longer just a distant dream; it is right in front of us.

As your shepherds, we are approaching Sunday, August 30 with deep faith, earnest prayer, and incredible anticipation. God has always provided for the Tusculum family, and we trust completely in His promise to equip us for every good work. In two weeks from today, the entire contribution collected will go directly toward wiping out this remaining balance. We, as your shepherds, are prayerfully preparing our own households to give generously, and we ask each of you to join us in seeking God's guidance for your own giving on that day.

Imagine the freedom that lies on the other side of this payoff. Eliminating this monthly debt frees up crucial resources that can be redirected into God's kingdom immediately. We can look forward to deepening our local outreach, strengthening our mission efforts both near and far, investing in dynamic ministry tools, and addressing some of the maintenance and upgrades needed here in the building and on this campus. Freeing up these funds allows us to focus entirely on people, ministry, and spiritual growth.

Your faithfulness over the years has allowed Tusculum to be a welcoming haven in this community. Now, we stand together on the threshold of an exciting new chapter. Please keep August 30 in your daily prayers. Let us give with grateful hearts, trust in His provision, and look forward to all the work we can do together once we are fully debt-free.

~Your Shepherds
