THIS WEEK'S ARTICLE

Hebrews

Isn't Hebrews an amazing book? Filled with Old Testament references made new by the Gospel, filled with warnings, illuminated and elevated by hope!

Here are some of my favorite passages as I walk through Hebrews. I trust you'll find joy and hope in them too...

Hebrews 2:10-18: Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death — that is, the devil — and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. For surely, it is not angels he helps, but Abraham's descendants . . . . Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

No fear in life, no fear in death! Help and assistance for us who are tempted, because He Himself was tempted!

Hebrews 5:14-16: For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are — yet he did not sin. Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Forgiveness, help, and assistance in our time of need, because He not only intercedes for us (Romans 8:34), but He can grant mercy and grace when we need it!

Hebrews 7:22-25: Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantor of a better covenant.. but because Jesus lives forever, he has a permanent priesthood. Therefore, he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.

"In Greek and Roman legal practice, a guarantor bound himself to satisfy another's debt should the debtor fail." You and I will fail. Jesus takes on our debt! On completion, "Strong's Greek 3838 conveys a sense of absolute completenses—nothing lacking, nothing partial, nothing left to be added." Christ saves us completely, fully, reliably, without fail!

Hebrews 10:14-18: For by one sacrifice, he has made perfect forever those who are being made holy . . . . And where these have been forgiven, sacrifice for sin is no longer necessary.

Christ's once-for-all sacrifice is done. Nothing remains to be done. Hope remains. Faithfulness remains. God's love remains.

Hope for the Holidays

GRIEF SUPPORT SESSION

As the holiday season approaches, we know it can be a difficult time for those coping with the loss of a loved one. We invite you to join us for our Hope for the Holidays Grief Support session on Sunday, November 22, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the Children's Wing Common Area. This session is a space to find comfort, connection, and strength, and a wonderful opportunity to reach out to someone you know—a friend, family member, or neighbor who may need support. Consider attending with them to offer your presence and encouragement. Sign-ups are encouraged but not required; come as you are. Together, let's find hope and healing this season.
If you have any questions, please see P.R. Anderson.
