NEHEMIAH

Everyone Takes One

Sundays
8:30 and 11 a.m.

This Sunday, September 6:

"Everyone Takes One"

Nehemiah 3:1-5, 28-32

Message by Drew Chapman

Join us in the Sanctuary at 8:30 or 11 a.m.

All God Has Next Steps
from last Sunday's Message:

First Step: I realize I only had religion, and I want a relationship with God. Ask God to forgive your sins and be baptized. Reach out to the church office to set up time with a pastoral staff member.

I realize I have intentionally or unintentionally been in the way of what God is doing through First Baptist, and I want to repent of being part of the problem and become part of the solution.

Formation Step: This week, I will invite someone to serve with me. Inside or outside the walls of the church, invite someone to serve alongside you.

Faith Step: I will strengthen my hands and commit to the work God is doing at First Baptist. I will commit to registering for Discover First soon. I will commit to finding a Sunday LifeGroup. I will commit to serving in some capacity. I will commit to begin or continue giving financially. I will invite someone I know to church with me. I will _____.

Gal Pals
2026-2027

Kick-Off Lunch Sign up here

Sunday, Sept. 27th
12-2pm
Fellowship Hall

Gal Pals features pairings of women (one college and one non-college) who meet on a regular basis to encourage and learn from one another in their walks with Christ. The Gal Pals Kickoff Lunch is for women already participating, and those wanting to join. We'll share a meal, plus have activities for existing Gal Pals, and a meet and greet for those not already paired. We are excited to see how the Lord will work through relationships formed between women in the church of all ages! Questions? Please contact Miranda Cox at miranda@fbctuscaloosa.org.

College MinistrySunday Life Group Now Meets in Fellowship Hall
