Good Trouble

Scripture

John 2:13–25

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money-changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, 'Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a market-place!' His disciples remembered that it was written, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' The Jews then said to him, 'What sign can you show us for doing this?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews then said, 'This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken. When he was in Jerusalem during the Passover festival, many believed in his name because they saw the signs that he was doing. But Jesus on his part would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people and needed no one to testify about anyone; for he himself knew what was in everyone.

Jesus Christ is Waiting

We will sing this to the tune FRENCH CAROL

(Graham Maule, John L. Bell) CCLI Song #2960834

Jesus Christ is waiting, waiting in the streets; no one is his neighbor, all alone he eats.

Listen, Lord Jesus, I am lonely too; make me, friend or stranger, fit to wait on you.

Jesus Christ is raging, raging in the streets, where injustice spirals and real hope retreats.

Listen, Lord Jesus I am angry too; in the Kingdom's causes let me rage with you.

Jesus Christ is healing, healing in the streets; curing those who suffer, touching those he greets.

Listen, Lord Jesus, I have pity too; let my care be active, healing, just like you.

Jesus Christ is dancing, dancing in the streets, where each sign of hatred he, with love, defeats.

Listen, Lord Jesus I should triumph too; where good conquers evil let me dance with you.

Jesus Christ is calling, calling in the streets, 'Who will join my journey? I will guide their feet.'

Listen, Lord Jesus, let my fears be few: walk one step before me; I will follow you.
