ANNOUNCEMENTS

INVOCATION

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. Let us confess our sin to God who is faithful and just and who has promised to forgive our sin and cleanse us from all unrighteousness...

A brief silence is kept for a moment of reflection

Most merciful God,...

We confess to you that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not trusted you with our whole heart; we have not loved one another in deed and in truth. In your compassion forgive our sin and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life through Jesus Christ our light and our truth. Amen.

With joy, I proclaim to you that almighty God, rich in mercy, abundant in love, forgives you all your sin and grants you newness of life in Jesus Christ.

Thanks be to God!

WE LISTEN TO GOD'S WORD

FIRST LESSON (Pew Bible p. 886)

Acts 2:42-47

Our first scripture reading is from the New Testament, the book of the Acts of the Apostles, chapter two, beginning with verse forty-two.

⁴² [The baptized] devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

⁴³ Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. ⁴⁴ All who believed were together and had all things in common; ⁴⁵ they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. ⁴⁶ Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷ praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is God's word.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM (Pew Bible p. 435)

Psalm 23

Our Psalm for today is Psalm twenty-three. I invite the congregation to read it aloud with me.

¹ The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

² He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;

³ he restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for his name's sake.

⁴ Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

⁵ You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD my whole life long.'

Our second lesson comes from the New Testament, the Apostle Peter’s first letter, chapter two, beginning with verse nineteen.

¹⁹ For it is a commendable thing if, being aware of God, a person endures pain while suffering unjustly. ²⁰ If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do good and suffer for it, this is a commendable thing before God. ²¹ For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

²² “He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

²³ When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. ²⁴ He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, having died to sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. ²⁵ For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

This is the word of God.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as you are able, for the reading of the Gospel.

The Holy Gospel according to Saint John, chapter ten, beginning with verse one.

Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] ¹ “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. ² The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. ³ The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴ When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵ They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” ⁶ Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

⁷ So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸ All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹ I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. ¹⁰ The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

The Gospel of our Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

WE RESPOND TO GOD’S WORD

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day He rose again. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE PREFACE

It is our duty and delight that we should everywhere and always offer thanks and praise to you, O God through Jesus Christ who by His death on the cross and glorious resurrection broke the bonds of sin and death and gave life to all creation. And so with the church on earth, all creation and the host of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Congregation:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly are you, God of pow - er and might; Heav - en and earth are filled with your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est! Bless - ed is the One who comes in your name. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est!

You are indeed holy, gracious, and merciful God; everything is filled with your glory. We give you thanks for Your promise and presence which have sustained the faithful in this and every generation. Above all, we give you thanks for Jesus, born of Mary, who in Word and deed announced your gentle rule of justice, reconciliation and peace.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

On the night of His betrayal, our Lord Jesus took bread and gave thanks; broke it and gave it to His disciples saying: Take and eat; this is my body given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper, He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

COMMUNION PRAYER

Remembering His command to love one another, His life and death, His resurrection and His ascension, we pray for His coming again, even as we cry;

Presider:

Congregation:

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, they will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

DISTRIBUTION

We believe those who receive the consecrated bread and wine receive Christ's body and blood and the forgiveness of sins. We invite all who are baptized and believe in Christ to join us in communing. Children not receiving communion may come forward for a blessing. Holy Communion will be served at the altar rail this morning. Please come forward at the direction of the ushers. WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY: The Ladies' Book Club will conclude at the end of the month. Join us this final week, on Wednesday from 2 to 3 pm. We are tackling the book of Acts to study how the Holy Spirit worked through the Apostles to spread the Gospel through the known world. There are lots of great stories to enjoy as we follow Peter and then Paul in their leadership roles. We will meet Rhoda and Lydia, and be shipwrecked with Paul. You won't want to miss it! As always, there is no outside reading or study, and no extra book to buy. Just bring your Bible – and maybe a friend. If you forget your Bible or don't have one, the church owns many for your use. (So – no excuses!)

INQUIRER'S CLASS - CONTINUING TODAY: FELC's new member/inquirer's class continues today and will continue through Sunday, June 7th. It is meeting in the church library at 9:00 am. If you're interested in finding out more about what a "Lutheran Christian" is ... this your chance. You don't need to commit to joining to be part of the study and questions are highly encouraged. However, if you are interested in becoming part of our FELC church family, this is your opportunity. The class is designed to cover at a glance some of the basic foundational parts of Christianity. Those considering membership need to attend at least four of the six classes, so there is still time to join in. Contact Pastor Mike or the church office if you're interested in attending.

DONATIONS FOR MAY FLOWERS: Help beautify our church gardens! There is still time to contribute to refurbishing our church planters and flowerbeds. There is a flower pot in the narthex at the Welcome Window, or use a blue pew envelope and mark it "Church Gardens." Thank you so much!

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER: Beginning at 9:00 am on Thursday, May 7th, at the Country Inn and Suites (2500 Channing Way), the Regional Council for Community Ministry will host an hour-long program for the National Day of Prayer. We will have a delicious breakfast followed by spiritual thoughts and beautiful musical numbers. Please join us on this special day when prayers are so sorely needed. Space is limited so RSVP to Kelly Call at 208 521-6666 by Thursday, April 30th.

HANDBELL CONCERT: Handbell ringers from St Luke's Episcopal Church and Trinity UMC, under the direction of Janet Miller, will be putting on a concert: Bells R Forever. It will be held on May 3rd at 2 pm at Lincoln Court. (850 Lincoln Dr, Idaho Falls)

GRADUATE QUILTS PRESENTATION: On May 3rd, the Happy Stitchers have the honor of presenting this year's FELC seniors with their graduate quilts. We hope that as they curl up in their quilts, the students remember that there are people in the congregation thinking of them and praying for them.

We want to appreciate and honor our youth and adults who have made this year a wonderful year of growth in faith. A special thanks to our teaching staff for sharing their time, wisdom, and hearts so generously. We couldn't do it without you and you make an everlasting difference!

LICENSE-FREE FISHING: Saturday, June 13th the Men's Ministry is organizing a "Go Fish" outing for young and old alike. Details are still being worked out but we hope to gather at a member's house near the Snake River to enjoy a family-friendly day of fishing, cycling, and picnicking. Watch for the details and sign-up sheet soon to be posted at the Welcome Window.

SUMMER CAMP SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE: Parents, please be aware as you make your summer plans for your youth that FELC offers scholarships for youth attending Christian camps.

STEPHEN MINISTRY: We commissioned our newly trained Stephen Ministers on April 19th. FELC is blessed to have a Stephen Ministry program, which provides a trusted ministry of care, walking alongside individuals who are experiencing grief, loss, illness, or other life challenges. Through prayer, listening, and compassionate presence, Stephen Ministers reflect Christ's love in tangible ways. We ask the congregation to please pray for them as they begin this meaningful work. Additionally, please consider if you or someone you know might benefit from having a Stephen Minister. If so, please talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders, Pastor Mike or Annick Dixon.

CALLING ALL TECH-MINDED INDIVIDUALS! We need more help with our worship service livestream. Our online community has expanded. We currently stream to almost 100 online viewers each week. This is an amazing platform to reach out to those beyond our church walls. This opportunity is open to our high school and college students, as well as anyone who is interested in learning a new skill. Please contact Paul Bayless for more information.
