ANNOUNCEMENTS

INVOCATION

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. Let us confess our sin to God who is faithful and just and who has promised to forgive our sin and cleanse us from all unrighteousness...

A brief silence is kept for a moment of reflection

Most merciful God,

We confess to you that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not trusted you with our whole heart; we have not loved one another in deed and in truth. In your compassion forgive our sin and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life through Jesus Christ our light and our truth. Amen.

With joy, I proclaim to you that almighty God, rich in mercy, abundant in love, forgives you all your sin and grants you newness of life in Jesus Christ.

Thanks be to God!

WE LISTEN TO GOD'S WORD

FIRST LESSON (Pew Bible p. 891)

Acts 7:55-60

Our first scripture reading is from the New Testament, the book of the Acts of the Apostles, chapter seven, beginning with verse fifty-five.

⁵⁵ Filled with the Holy Spirit, [Stephen] gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶ "Look," he said, "I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!" ⁵⁷ But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him. ⁵⁸ Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him, and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹ While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." ⁶⁰ Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he died.

This is God's word.
Thanks be to God.

SECOND LESSON (Pew Bible p. 984)

1 Peter 2:2-10

Our second lesson comes from the New Testament, the Apostle Peter's first letter, chapter two, beginning with verse two.

² Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation ³ if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

⁴ Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and ⁵ like living stones let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶ For it stands in scripture:

"See, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious,
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."

⁷ This honor, then, is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe,

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner,"

⁸ and

"A stone that makes them stumble and a rock that makes them fall."

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

⁹ But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

¹⁰ Once you were not a people,
but now you are God's people;
once you had not received mercy,
but now you have received mercy.

This is the word of God.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as you are able, for the reading of the Gospel.

THE HOLY GOSPEL (Pew Bible p. 877)

John 14:1-14

The Holy Gospel according to Saint John, chapter fourteen, beginning with verse one.

Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said to the disciples:] ¹ "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. ² In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. ⁴ And you know the way to the place where I am going." ⁵ Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" ⁶ Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷ If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him."

⁸ Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." ⁹ Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? ¹⁰ Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. ¹¹ Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, but if you do not, then believe because of the works themselves. ¹² Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³ I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴ If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.”

The Gospel of our Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

WE RESPOND TO GOD’S WORD

PRESENTATION OF SENIOR QUILTS

- Thomas Smith
- Ashlyn Chamberland
- Dylan Arnold
- Alex Rodriguez

In baptism God claimed you as God’s child and called you by name. You were sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the cross of Christ forever. Many of you personalized God’s calling on your life when you publicly affirmed your baptism and proclaimed Jesus as your Lord and Savior. The church has often used symbolism to express that personal relationship with Christ. At FELC we like to talk about how all baptized believers in Christ have been “wrapped” in God’s love and given the gift of God’s comforter, the Holy Spirit. Cloaks, mantles, blankets, and comforters have often been symbols of being wrapped in God’s love and blessed with God’s Spirit/Comforter. Elijah shared his love and God’s Spirit with Elisha, who had asked for a double share of God’s Spirit, by giving Elisha his cloak.

As you graduate and move out into the world, your congregation wants to give each of you a “Comforter.” Let this comforter be a “double portion” symbol of your church family’s love for you and your God’s love and spirit. As you move forward in your life’s journey, may you continue to cherish being wrapped in this comforter of our love for you. And may you, as Elisha did, treasure and be restored by this cloak of God’s Spirit upon you.

Heavenly Father, surround our graduates with Your grace. Let these quilts remind them they are wrapped in your love and being cheered on by their church family. Bless them with hope as they step into the future with eager and open hearts. Guide them to use the knowledge, skills, and insights they've gained through their education for the good of all humanity. Amen.

You are indeed holy, gracious, and merciful God; everything is filled with your glory. We give you thanks for Your promise and presence which have sustained the faithful in this and every generation. Above all, we give you thanks for Jesus, born of Mary, who in Word and deed announced your gentle rule of justice, reconciliation and peace.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

On the night of His betrayal, our Lord Jesus took bread and gave thanks; broke it and gave it to His disciples saying: Take and eat; this is my body given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper, He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

COMMUNION PRAYER

Remembering His command to love one another, His life and death, His resurrection and His ascension, we pray for His coming again, even as we cry;

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, they will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

DISTRIBUTION

We believe those who receive the consecrated bread and wine receive Christ's body and blood and the forgiveness of sins. We invite all who are baptized and believe in Christ to join us in communing. Children not receiving communion may come forward for a blessing. Holy Communion will be served at the altar rail this morning. Please come forward at the direction of the ushers. You may choose white grape juice or red wine. Gluten-free wafers are available. Please return to your seats by a side aisle.

INQUIRER'S CLASS - CONTINUING TODAY: FELC's new member/inquirer's class continues today and will continue through Sunday, June 7th. It is meeting in the church library at 9:00 am. If you're interested in finding out more about what a "Lutheran Christian" is ... this your chance. You don't need to commit to joining to be part of the study and questions are highly encouraged. However, if you are interested in becoming part of our FELC church family, this is your opportunity. The class is designed to cover at a glance some of the basic foundational parts of Christianity. Those considering membership need to attend at least four of the six classes, so there is still time to join in. Contact Pastor Mike or the church office if you're interested in attending.

DONATIONS FOR MAY FLOWERS: Help beautify our church gardens! There is still time to contribute to refurbishing our church planters and flowerbeds. There is a flower pot in the narthex at the Welcome Window, or use a blue pew envelope and mark it "Church Gardens." Thank you so much!

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER: Beginning at 9:00 am on Thursday, May 7th, at the Country Inn and Suites (2500 Channing Way), the Regional Council for Community Ministry will host an hour-long program for the National Day of Prayer. We will have a delicious breakfast followed by spiritual thoughts and beautiful musical numbers. Please join us on this special day when prayers are so sorely needed. Space is limited so please RSVP to Kelly Call at 208 521-6666 by Thursday, April 30th.

MUSIC SUNDAY: Sunday, May 17th we will thank God for our music groups as we enjoy their final performances before taking a well-earned break for summer. Speaking of summer and music, we'd love to keep the "Praising God" aspect of our mission statement active with special music. If you are interested in offering special music vocally, instrumentally or both, please contact our Music Director, Michelle Hanson, at musicdirector@firstlc.com.

LAST DAY OF SUNDAY SCHOOL: Sunday, May 17th will be our last Sunday School session until Fall. We invite young and old to help us celebrate another great year of "Sharing Jesus." We've got some fun snacks and (weather permitting) outdoor activities planned, so wear your outdoor clothes. We want to appreciate and honor our youth and adults who have made this year a wonderful year of growth in faith. A special thanks to our teaching staff for sharing their time, wisdom, and hearts so generously. We couldn't do it without you and you make an everlasting difference!

LICENSE-FREE FISHING: Saturday, June 13th the Men's Ministry is organizing a "Go Fish" outing for young and old alike. Details are still being worked out but we hope to gather at a member's house near the Snake River to enjoy a family-friendly day of fishing, cycling, and picnicking. Watch for the details and sign-up sheet soon to be posted at the Welcome Window.

SUMMER CAMP SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE: Parents, please be aware as you make your summer plans for your youth that FELC offers scholarships for youth attending Christian camps.

LUTHER HEIGHTS DAY CAMP: The Luther Heights Day Camp dates for FELC are June 15-19, 2026. It's not too early to start thinking about summer camp! Registration begins soon; more details to follow.

STEPHEN MINISTRY: We commissioned our newly trained Stephen Ministers on April 19th. FELC is blessed to have a Stephen Ministry program, which provides a trusted ministry of care, walking alongside individuals who are experiencing grief, loss, illness, or other life challenges. Through prayer, listening, and compassionate presence, Stephen Ministers reflect Christ's love in tangible ways. We ask the congregation to please pray for them as they begin this meaningful work. Additionally, please consider if you or someone you know might benefit from having a Stephen Minister. If so, please talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders, Pastor Mike or Annick Dixon.

CALLING ALL TECH-MINDED INDIVIDUALS! We need more help with our worship service livestream. Our online community has expanded. We currently stream to almost 100 online viewers each week. This is an amazing platform to reach out to those beyond our church walls. This opportunity is open to our high school and college students, as well as anyone who is interested in learning a new skill. Please contact Paul Bayless for more information.
