THE BLESSING BULLETIN

DID YOU KNOW?

A visit to The Blessing begins with an email inquiry requesting specific dates. It includes name, contact information, organization name and supervisor, years of service, and specific need.

After receiving the inquiry, Wendy follows up with an email. If the requested dates are possible, each guest is asked to fill out The Blessing Guest Information Sheet. A Zoom call follows before their scheduled stay.

HURRICANE ISAIAS

Just days before the hurricane hit, I arrived back in Florida. I am so thankful for God's protection. There was no damage to The Blessing. Though I was without home internet for nearly 10 days, power was restored in less than 48 hours. I lost most of what was in my refrigerator and freezer, but it was minimal due to my road trip in September/early October. If you would like to hear more about the experience, you can check out my blog posts. www.theblessingfl.com

GUEST FEEDBACK

Here are some thoughts from recent guests of The Blessing. Though I host each stay, it is only possible because of The Blessing TEAM. I hope their words will encourage you as they encouraged me.

"Obviously, I can only speak for my experience with Wendy at The Blessing, but I appreciate that she has been trained to do what she does in terms of debriefing, that she has been able to provide her guests with a comfortable space to work out the process, and that she has so many years of missionary experience. From someone currently on the field, it helps that she could understand where I was coming from. Offering this for 'free' gives us the choice to make donations as we have funds and not miss out on the experience all together because we can't afford it."

"Wendy provided a peaceful physical space, while also maintaining an encouraging and joyful spirit. The debrief was so impactful, but the real blessing for me was getting to know and spend time with her. Well trained hosts like Wendy are key to providing safe spaces for people to share and find healing. It's nice to know that the people working for Oasis Rest are vetted and trained properly!"

SPECIFIC NEED

I am so grateful to the faithful members of The Blessing Team. Due to cost-of-living increases and their negative impact on so many, The Blessing needs some additional funding. Whether new members or increased involvement, the specific need is $500 a month. We would love to welcome you to The Blessing team! Feel free to contact me for additional information.
