

The Posts

Missionaries to New Brunswick, French Speaking Canada

September 2026

Dear Pastor and Church Family,

Thank you for your continued prayers and faithful support of our ministry in French-Speaking Canada. Praise the Lord for His grace in His work. I have been reminded of this through John 15:5 where the Lord says "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing." Our desire is to bear fruit for His glory and through His strength.

Thank you for praying for my recent cancer surgery. I have an appointment with the surgeon on the 21st of September and will know more at that time if all was taken care of or if there will be treatments. I appreciate your prayers. God has been good in allowing me to continue to lead our church services as I recuperate. I appreciate my wife's help and care as the healing process has been slower than I expected. Praise the Lord for His help and grace. I am learning the importance of abiding in the Lord and relying upon His strength for the christian life and ministry.

We were thrilled to receive a visit from a man who was saved and baptised in our ministry in the Ivory Coast. Yves-Florien, his mom, sister, brother and cousin were all saved and baptised in our church in Africa and became strong faithful members. I was always amazed by how much work Jennifer put into teaching the children and by how many Bible verses they would memorise. Who would have thought that years later one of those kids would earn two master's degrees in finance in Quebec and would be faithfully serving in a good Independent Baptist Church. During his visit, Yves-Florien was a tremendous help to us as he preached on Sunday and helped with work at our house during the week. God is good.

It is a blessing to see new Christians grow in the Lord and make decisions for Him. Praise the Lord, another person has indicated that they want to be baptised. Also a man told us during a Wednesday night service that his friends give him a hard time for coming to our church. Those are big decisions and it's great to see people identify with the Lord and with His people. We also see many acts of kindness amongst the faithful as they edify one another. Several have come to our house to bring food and visit. A couple of Sundays ago, we had a visitor at church who is an exchange student from Belgium. We have an English Bible to give to her along with Gospel tracts and literature. We are praying that Rade will receive the Lord before she returns home in three months.

We've had a few faithful families move away for university and employment needs. It's not easy to see them go, but it is a blessing to see the Lord work in their lives. One family is now attending a good Independent Baptist Church and the others are still searching for a good church to attend.

We are often reminded of the need to share the Gospel while there is time. In a small town where everyone knows each other, we have heard of several deaths recently either by accidents or suicide. One Gospel tract, one act of kindness, one invitation to church can make all the difference in someone's life. If we abide in Him, the Lord can use us for His glory to make a difference in people's lives.

In Him,

Dan Post

