

How to be a Biblical Friend

Summer 2026

Instructor

Hunter Jagers &
Connor Arline

Email

hunter@mlbc.org
connora521@yahoo.com

Course location and time

Classroom 121
Wednesdays 6:30-8:00pm

General Information

Objective

To help believers reframe worldly views of friendship by grounding their relationships in Scripture, cultivating authenticity and depth, preventing “suffering in silence” within the church, and equipping them to bring their outside friends into a Christ-centered community.

Requirements

Students are expected to attend each class, participate meaningfully in the weekly application assignments, and intentionally practice the biblical principles of friendship in their daily relationships.

Course Materials

Recommended text:

- The Company We Keep: In Search of Biblical Friendship, Jonathan Holmes (available on Amazon)
- Made for Friendship, Drew Hunter (available on Amazon)

Additional Resources:

- The Best of Friends - RightNow Media Series
- Not Alone: A Study on Friendship - RightNow Media Series

Required materials:

A Bible. Handouts and pens will be provided.

Course Schedule

Week	Date	Topic
Week 1	June 3 rd	What are Friends for?
Week 2	June 10 th	Unique Ministry of Friendship
Week 3	June 17 th	Toxic Friendship and How to Rebuild
Week 4	June 24 th	How to Bring Outside Friends to Church