Introduction:

Title: What is eschatology and why should I study it.

Hebrews 1:1–4 | “Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.”

Romans 15:4 | “For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. So according to Paul understanding prophecy provides hope for the present.”

The importance of eschatology.

Since eschatology has to do with prophecy we are called to teach the whole counsel of the Bible. Prophecy proves to us that God can be trusted - 2 Timothy 2:15

Eschatology has to do with God telling us what _____.

John 14:1–6 | “Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going.”
Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.”

Acts 1:11 | “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.”
