General Information

Objective

By the end of this course, couples will have a stronger understanding of biblical communication, practical tools for navigating conflict, and renewed rhythms of affection, friendship, and spiritual unity. Couples will be equipped to communicate with clarity, listen with empathy, and build a marriage marked by grace and intentional connection.

Requirements

Couples are expected to attend each session, participate in guided conversations, and complete the weekly at-home assessment and discussion. Honest engagement is essential for meaningful growth.

Expectations

Sessions will include teaching, couple exercises, and group discussion. Couples are encouraged to approach each week with humility, openness, and a willingness to practice new skills. Confidentiality and respect for others' stories are essential.

Course Materials

Required materials:

A Bible. Handouts and pens will be provided.
