

QLCC CAR SHOW // Our 7th annual QLCC CAR SHOW will be Sunday October 4th. We will have food vendors on campus and lots of wonderful cars and trucks. If you have a vehicle you'd like to share with the crowd, you can sign up online at www.quaillakechurch.com. And tell your friends to bring their vehicles too...there will prizes for all our winners!

THE JOURNEY TO BETHLEHEM RETURNS! // We love Christmas here at Quail Lake Church and one of our traditions at Christmas is our Journey To Bethlehem craft show and fair. Gayle Casella is our team leader on this event, and she has scheduled this year's event earlier to try to avoid being hit by the rain as happened last year. This is a fun event and a chance for us to let the world around us know of God's love and work on that first Christmas. Hold the date and we will keep bringing you more information on this fun and family-friendly event at Quail Lake Community Church

TRUNK OR TREAT // We will be setting up booths for kids from all over the area to come and have a safe place for Halloween. That is going to take place on Wednesday, October 28 on our central parking lot. We will need fun trunks or booths and lots of candy. We'll keep you posted on this fun event for kids of all ages!

QLCC MANAGEMENT TEAM...We will be starting a brand new ministry group called our Management Team. They will be charged with the care and repair of the campus that God has given to us. It is a team that will not spend much time ever in meetings, but in putting their love and commitment into action. Keep watching for our time of recruitment of team members which will be coming soon. There will be a place for everyone who wants to serve on our team!

CHRISTIAN NEIGHBORS NEED HELP...The other day I was coming down McCall Ave and couldn't get through because there was a huge plume of black smoke coming from the corner of McCall and Ashlan. There were all kinds of emergency vehicles so I couldn't even get close but found out that it was that wonderful fruit stand on the corner. The stand burned but also the home and all the belongings of the owner Andy who our good friend Chip found out is a fellow believer. They have food and temporary housing but are in real need of a refrigerator. If you can help with a decent working unit, please go by there or let me know and I'll go and talk with them. They have been a constant presence close to us for years...let's help out this part of the family if we can.

STARTING OFF STRONG

Mark 1:1-45 NLT

JOHN AND JESUS

This is the Good News about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God. It began (2) just as the prophet Isaiah had written: “Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, and he will prepare your way. (3) He is a voice shouting in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming! Clear the road for him!’” (4) This messenger was John the Baptist. He was in the wilderness and preached that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven. (5) All of Judea, including all the people of Jerusalem, went out to see and hear John. And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River. (6) His clothes were woven from coarse camel hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food he ate locusts and wild honey. (7) John announced: “Someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not even worthy to stoop down like a slave and untie the straps of his sandals. (8) I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit!” (9) One day Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and John baptized him in the Jordan River. (10) As Jesus came up out of the water, he saw the heavens splitting apart and the Holy Spirit descending on him like a dove. (11) And a voice from heaven said, “You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy.”

EVIL AND ENLISTMENTS

(12) The Spirit then compelled Jesus to go into the wilderness, (13) where he was tempted by Satan for forty days. He was out among the wild animals, and angels took care of him. (14) Later on, after John was arrested, Jesus went into Galilee, where he preached God’s Good News. (15) “The time promised by God has come at last!” he announced. “The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!” (16) One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. (17) Jesus called out to them, “Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!” (18) And they left their nets at once and followed him. (19) A little farther up the shore Jesus saw Zebedee’s sons, James and John, in a boat repairing their nets.

(20) He called them at once, and they also followed him, leaving their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired men.

SYNAGOGUE AND SPIRITS

(21) Jesus and his companions went to the town of Capernaum. When the Sabbath day came, he went into the synagogue and began to teach. (22) The people were amazed at his teaching, for he taught with real authority—quite unlike the teachers of religious law. (23) Suddenly, a man in the synagogue who was possessed by an evil spirit cried out, (24) “Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” (25) But Jesus reprimanded him. “Be quiet! Come out of the man,” he ordered. (26) At that, the evil spirit screamed, threw the man into a convulsion, and then came out of him. (27) Amazement gripped the audience, and they began to discuss what had happened. “What sort of new teaching is this?” they asked excitedly. “It has such authority! Even evil spirits obey his orders!” (28) The news about Jesus spread quickly throughout the entire region of Galilee.

FEVER AND FIENDS

(29) After Jesus left the synagogue with James and John, they went to Simon and Andrew’s home. (30) Now Simon’s mother-in-law was sick in bed with a high fever. They told Jesus about her right away. (31) So he went to her bedside, took her by the hand, and helped her sit up. Then the fever left her, and she prepared a meal for them. (32) That evening after sunset, many sick and demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. (33) The whole town gathered at the door to watch. (34) So Jesus healed many people who were sick with various diseases, and he cast out many demons. But because the demons knew who he was, he did not allow them to speak. (35) Before daybreak the next morning, Jesus got up and went out to an isolated place to pray. (36) Later Simon and the others went out to find him. (37) When they found him, they said, “Everyone is looking for you.” (38) But Jesus replied, “We must go on to other towns as well, and I will preach to them, too. That is why I came.”

LEPROSY AND LEGACY

(39) So he traveled throughout the region of Galilee, preaching in the synagogues and casting out demons. (40) A man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus, begging to be healed. “If you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean,” he said.

(41) Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” (42) Instantly the leprosy disappeared, and the man was healed. (43) Then Jesus sent him on his way with a stern warning: (44) “Don’t tell anyone about this. Instead, go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy. This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.” (45) But the man went and spread the word, proclaiming to everyone what had happened. As a result, large crowds soon surrounded Jesus, and he couldn’t publicly enter a town anywhere. He had to stay out in the secluded places, but people from everywhere kept coming to him.

TO GO BAG...

1-Jesus made time to be with his Heavenly Father...do the same.

2-Jesus has the same authority over the world and our lives.

3-Jesus demonstrates compassion in the use of power.

4-Jesus caused people to act in faith.

5-Jesus served others...we need to do the same.

AWANA RETURNS! // Our AWANA club will be starting up on Wednesday, September 16th at 6:00 PM. We have something for young people of virtually every age. We will be focusing on learning Bible verses and their meaning for our lives and this year we will also be focused on why we believe the Bible and all that it teaches. All kids are invited to come and join our club this year.
