Gayle Casella is our team leader on this event, and she has scheduled this year's event earlier to try to avoid being hit by the rain as happened last year. This is a fun event and a chance for us to let the world around us know of God's love and work on that first Christmas. Hold the date and we will keep bringing you more information on this fun and family-friendly event at Quail Lake Community Church.

FALL FEAST // We will have our annual Fall Feast meal on November 8th which includes a dessert auction. If you are unable to make the dinner please consider donating a dessert to be auctioned. All proceeds from the Fall Feast will be used for Christian Camp Scholarships. More information to come soon please be on the look out.

QLCC MANAGEMENT TEAM // We will be starting a brand new ministry group called our Management Team. They will be charged with the care and repair of the campus that God has given to us. It is a team that will not spend much time ever in meetings, but in putting their love and commitment into action. Keep watching for our time of recruitment of team members which will be coming soon. There will be a place for everyone who wants to serve on our team!

CHRISTIAN NEIGHBORS NEED HELP...The other day I was coming down McCall Ave and couldn't get through because there was a huge plume of black smoke coming from the corner of McCall and Ashlan. There were all kinds of emergency vehicles so I couldn't even get close but found out that it was that wonderful fruit stand on the corner. The stand burned but also the home and all the belongings of the owner Andy who our good friend Chip found out is a fellow believer. They have food and temporary housing but are in real need of a refrigerator. If you can help with a decent working unit, please go by there or let me know and I'll go and talk with them. They have been a constant presence close to us for years...let's help out this part of the family if we can.

FORGIVENESS IN A FRACTURED HOUSE

Mark 2:1-28 NLT

PREACHING TO THE PARALYZED

When Jesus returned to Capernaum several days later, the news spread quickly that he was back home. (2) Soon the house where he was staying was so packed with visitors that there was no more room, even outside the door. While he was preaching God’s word to them, (3) four men arrived carrying a paralyzed man on a mat. (4) They couldn’t bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, so they dug a hole through the roof above his head. Then they lowered the man on his mat, right down in front of Jesus. (5) Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “My child, your sins are forgiven.” (6) But some of the teachers of religious law who were sitting there thought to themselves, (7) “What is he saying? This is blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!” (8) Jesus knew immediately what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you question this in your hearts? (9) Is it easier to say to the paralyzed man ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk’? (10) So I will prove to you that the Son of Man has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, (11) “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!” (12) And the man jumped up, grabbed his mat, and walked out through the stunned onlookers. They were all amazed and praised God, exclaiming, “We’ve never seen anything like this before!”

DINING WITH THE DREADFUL

(13) Then Jesus went out to the lakeshore again and taught the crowds that were coming to him. (14) As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. So Levi got up and followed him. (15) Later, Levi invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. (There were many people of this kind among Jesus’ followers.) (16) But when the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees saw him eating with tax collectors and other sinners, they asked his disciples, “Why does he eat with such scum?” (17) When Jesus heard this, he told them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners.”

WEDDINGS AND WINESKINS

(18) Once when John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, some people came to Jesus and asked, “Why don’t your disciples fast like John’s disciples and the Pharisees do?” (19) Jesus replied, “Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. They can’t fast while the groom is with them. (20) But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. (21) “Besides, who would patch old clothing with new cloth? For the new patch would shrink and rip away from the old cloth, leaving an even bigger tear than before. (22) “And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the wine would burst the wineskins, and the wine and the skins would both be lost. New wine calls for new wineskins.”

LUNCH OF THE LORD

(23) One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples began breaking off heads of grain to eat. (24) But the Pharisees said to Jesus, “Look, why are they breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?” (25) Jesus said to them, “Haven’t you ever read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? (26) He went into the house of God (during the days when Abiathar was high priest) and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests are allowed to eat. He also gave some to his companions.” (27) Then Jesus said to them, “The Sabbath was made to meet the needs of people, and not people to meet the requirements of the Sabbath. (28) So the Son of Man is Lord, even over the Sabbath!”
