Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

Today is Mission Sunday! From our birth as a church, CCPC has been dedicated to God's global mission and his mission right around the corner. Jesus told us to go into all the world and tell the world about Him (Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 1:8).
We celebrate several Missions Sundays each year to remind us of God's mission and God's faithfulness and to expand our perspective on how God works in us and through us.

Children: Our Worship Leaders.
The Scriptures are full of evidence that the people of God should think highly of their covenant children. They are capable of many things! Luke 1:15 describes John the Baptist as filled with the Holy Spirit "while yet in his mother's womb." Jesus taught His disciples that little children, even babies, are capable of simple, God-given faith (Matthew 19:13-15; Luke 18:15-17). Jesus said that even faith the size of a mustard seed could move mountains (Matthew 17:20). It should be obvious to us that children are capable of leading us in worship, and they furthermore remind us that approaching God in worship is done in child-like faith. We thank God that every part of His Church—from young to old—has a valuable contribution to make to our worship and mission!

Prayer for the Week

O God, as a mother comforts her children, You strengthen, sustain, and provide for us.
Pour out your Spirit.
Enable your servants to abound in love, and establish our homes in holiness, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

More to Mother's Day. On this Mother's Day, we give thanks for the roles of mothers and other loving nurturing people in our lives. As we do, we also offer our respect and love to those for whom this day is painful. Some mourn the loss of loving mothers; others do not have happy memories of childhood; some have been unable to bear children or have suffered the death of children, others have placed children into adoption. As the family of God, we rejoice with those who rejoice on this day and we weep with those who weep.

Prayer chain If you would like to be kept up-to-date on prayer needs in our church body, please sign up for the CCPC Prayer chain at ccpcprays@ccpc.life

May We Pray With You? When we join together in prayer, there is a particular power available from God. If you would like prayer and/or prayer for healing, please come forward after the service to find a pastor or elder and we'd love to pray for you and/or anoint you with oil (per James 5).

Assisting in Worship Cherub Choir, Karen Suchomel, director; Lorraine Cooper, accompanist; Sanctuary Choir; Lu Downing, accompanist; Will Barnes, reader; David Knopp & Tech Team; Usher Team

Giving In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind, soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives. One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or here: <https://cherrycreekpres.org/give>
