Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

There's More to Fathers' Day. The calendar says this is "Fathers' Day" and we give thanks for the roles of fathers and other loving nurturing people who have served as "father figures" in our lives. As we do, we also offer our respect and love to those for whom this day is painful. Some mourn the loss of loving fathers; others have painful memories of their relationship with their father, and some men long to be fathers and aren't able. As the family of God, we rejoice with those who rejoice on this day and we weep with those who weep.

"This is My Father's World" is a counter-cultural hymn. In an age where naturalism prevails, the world is viewed as a closed set of material objects and circumstances. When we proclaim, "This is my Father's world," we are saying that this world is more than the stuff of earth. It is created and governed by a loving, personal God who cares intimately for His creation. We also proclaim that the nature we see around us points us back to Him: "In the rustling grass, I hear Him pass; He speaks to me everywhere."

Prayer for the Week

Lord God,
We love you.
We trust you.
We believe in you.
We know that Jesus loves us and died for us.
We know that you never leave us.
This week, we celebrate because of everything you have done for us!

You have fed us, Lord, and we are grateful.
Allow us to respond this day, and in the days to come,
with hearts made ready,
eyes made open,
hands made strong,
and feet made willing to do your will in this place,
and in all the places to which you call us. Amen.
