...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

Who are missionaries? The true, biblical answer to this question is anyone who is a Christian (Matthew 28:19-20; 1 Peter 3:15). We all have a part to play in being witness to the Gospel and sharing that good news with neighbors, family, and friends. We have a part to play in performing our work-- whatever it may be-- with excellence. These are missionary concepts that all can share in.

In addition to this idea, though, is the idea that some get commissioned for being a missionary for a particular season. Typically, we associate those who cross those cultural boundaries into other countries as vocational missionaries, though that need not be the case.

Today, we are thrilled to present our summer Short-Term Mission Teams. We wanted to take time in our service this morning to officially commission them and bless them as a church. Please be in ongoing prayer for them.

Song of Response. It is typical in many Christian services to have a congregational song of response after the Sermon has been preached. And this is a fitting action, because it emphasizes that the Word of God always elicits a response from us. God's Word is "like a fire...like a hammer that breaks a rock" (Jeremiah 23:29). Scripture is "God-

May We Pray With You? When we join together in prayer, there is a particular power available from God. If you would like prayer and/or prayer for healing, please come forward after the service to find a pastor or elder and we'd love to pray for you and/or anoint you with oil (per James 5).

Giving In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind, soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives.
