Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

Missions and the "Communion of the Saints." Those on our mission teams have experienced a new kind of "communion of the saints" beyond the walls of our church. We, in turn, are reminded that Christ's church is bigger than Cherry Creek, bigger than our denomination, bigger than what goes on in the United States. As God adds to the number of His people worldwide, we as Christ's body experience communion them.

As we hear the stories of one of our mission partners, let's remember that we are hearing the stories of our brothers and sisters. Today we have an opportunity to experience a broader kind of "communion of the saints."

Prayer of the Week. Every Sunday, we include a short prayer (printed below the Postlude) which is designed to focus and guide your prayer time throughout the upcoming week. Please take this prayer with you and use it as a context for your day-to-day prayers, remembering that the Spirit helps us in our weakness. (Rom. 8:26)

Prayer for the Week

Loving God, your goodness is all around us.
But sometimes it seems overshadowed by pain, death, and suffering.
Assure us in times of doubt that you are the God of resurrection.
May our lips sing your praise, and may our lives be a living sacrifice to you. Amen.
(Common Prayer)

Prayer chain If you would like to be kept up-to-date on prayer needs in our church body, please sign up for the CCPC Prayer chain at ccpcprays@ccpc.life.

May We Pray With You? When we join together in prayer, there is a particular power available from God. If you would like prayer and/or prayer for healing, please come forward after the service to find a pastor or elder and we'd love to pray for you and/or anoint you with oil (per James 5).

One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or here: <https://cherrycreekpres.org/give>
