Mission Sunday

Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshiping with us this Sunday morning.

Today is Mission Sunday! From our birth as a church, CCPC has been dedicated to God's global mission and his mission right around the corner. Jesus told us to go into all the world and tell the world about Him (Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 1:8). We celebrate several Mission Sundays each year to remind us of God's mission and God's faithfulness and to expand our perspective on how God works in us and through us.

How Making Disciples Flows from Worship. Discipleship and mission are of course important, necessary, and biblical aspects of the threefold purpose of the church, but worship should be recognized as having primacy, for worship is the eternal duty and joy of the people of God.

In the new creation, in the eternal state, the Great Commission will have been completed and God's people will have been brought to maturity in Christ (Eph 4:13), but God's people will continue to sing God's praises and to

Prayer for the Week

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, the privilege is ours to be called to share in the loving, healing, and reconciling mission of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, in this age and wherever we are.
Since without you we can do no good thing,
may your Spirit strengthen us
so that we will be strong in faith;
discerning in proclamation;
courageous in witness;
This we ask through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
(from the Worship Sourcebook, 2nd ed.)

enjoy him forever, in ever deepening measure (Eph 3:19,
"filled to the measure of all the fullness of God"), unto the eternity of eternities, forever, world without end. (John Jefferson Davis, Worship and the Reality of God, 177)
