Elder Examination - Josh Roach

Elder Qualification Survey

Joshua Roach is in the process for eldership. One of the qualifications for an elder is that he is able both "to exhort in sound doctrine and to refute those who contradict" (Titus 1:9). The elders have confidence in Josh; in his love for the Word, his love for Christ, and his love for the body; and we welcome the congregation's careful input. Congregational feedback is open from September 18th thru October 18th and can be found by clicking the link above.

The J&N Family Mission Update

The J&N family has formally requested that LBC withdraw our commendation of them to ministry and that we no longer maintain a formal pastoral oversight connection with them.

We thank the Lord for the service they have given and pray for His blessing on their work as they seek affiliation with other churches and organizations.

LBC currently holds designated gifts given by people at LBC for the J&N Family. Those funds will be transferred to the organization with which they are affiliated.

If you have automated designated gifts to the J&N Family through LBC, please stop those gifts.

Supported & Commended Workers & Ministries

LBC partners with overseas workers and ministries that advance the gospel locally and abroad. If you would like more information on ministries LBC is partnered with, the elders would be glad to share them with you.

LBC | Biblical Counseling Ministry

Biblical Counseling Training

If you are interested in pursuing Biblical counseling training, please reach out to Cody Newcome for more information (cody@littletonbiblechapel.org). This is a wonderful way to equip yourself to minister with God's Word to your family, friends and inside the church. The ACBC training program not only enables you to help others but will minister personally to your own soul and grow you up in the Lord and the knowledge of His Word.

Marriage Mentoring

Are you newly married and feel you would like a little guidance as your relationship grows and changes? Perhaps you have been married long enough that busyness and complacency has created drift and your relationship is 'just OK'. Have you lost a child, in a blended family, or other major life event and would like to connect with another couple who understands the unique challenges you face? Maybe you are in a healthy marriage but want it to be even better.

LBC has trained marriage mentors with life experiences to encourage you no matter how you would describe your marriage. Mentors will be there to cheer you when you are doing well and help give attention to areas you want to strengthen so that small irritations don't become major issues. There is usually a lot of laughter and sometimes tears, as couples share from their hearts.

The plan is for a mentor and mentee couple to meet once a month for a year to explore topics such as Money, Pace and Priorities, Gratitude and Forgiveness and others. You choose the topic each month.

To find out what people are saying about the Marriage Mentoring program or to learn more, please follow this LINK.

If you would like more information about being mentored please contact one of the following:

Patty Borgert: borgerts@mac.com

Ken Borgert: kenborgert@mac.com

Cody Newcome: cody@littletonbiblechapel.org

October Scripture Memory

James 1:25-26

But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. If anyone thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this person's religion is worthless.
