John's Baptism (Luke 3:1-14)

First, for those that are reading ahead, I've changed the passage from what was published on Sunday.

There is no way I can get through the whole passage, so I'm shortening it to only include chapter 3, verses 1-14. There is a lot to see in this passage.

So often, we take baptism for granted, especially those of us that have grown up the Baptist tradition. But I think we may overlook the importance of what should transpire before and after we are baptized. So, this Sunday, we will look at John's Baptism and see how to apply it to our personal lives.
