Room 101

Missionaries Passage: Luke 5:1-11

Fishermen are hard workers. As in Jesus' day, they are capable of enduring all kinds of weather, hot, cold, stormy, or windy. They are patient and persistent. These sound like good qualities for a disciple of Jesus! In today's passage, Jesus called common fishermen from Galilee to become His disciples. Jesus told these seasoned fishermen that instead of catching fish, they would now catch people for Jesus. In other words, Jesus called them to bring people into a relationship with Him. They shared their time with the lost to bring them into the kingdom of God. Are you catching people for Jesus? God, Your kingdom comes on this earth every time a sinner repents and turns to You. Work to bring people into a relationship with Jesus.

Mission Service Project for May:

Agape Church Under the Bridge, Jody Thornton said the people can use your old cell phone with a cable and charger. Jody knows how to remove data so the phone is clean. They can also use wallets that hang around their neck to keep their ID. Other items: black socks, soap, shampoo, toothbrush, toothpaste, deodorant, Neosporin ointment, and Band-Aids.

Serve Opportunity:

Christian Women's Job Corps (CWJC) is seeking an English as a Second Language (ESL) teacher. Please contact Xiomara Martinez, Director, at 915-313-9466 or cwjcel Paso@gmail.com.

Good News Club is seeking more volunteers for the upcoming school year. Your involvement is crucial to our mission of bringing the Good News to more elementary school campuses. Training is provided. It is a commitment of no more than 3 hours per week. If you are interested or have any questions, please get in touch with Carmen Reeves at munemanzur@gmail.com
