Prelude

Chiming the Hour

Preparing for Worship

Call to Worship

When they had crossed over, God said:
Take twelve stones from this place
and set them up as a sign so that when your children ask,
“What do these stones mean?”
you can tell them:

God was faithful here.

Eighty years of stones:
children learning, bonds formed,
grief shared, healing found.

What do these stones mean?

God was faithful here. God is faithful still.

*Hymn of Praise

They Sing Your Praise

JERUSALEM

This hymn was written by Rev. Landon Whitsitt and set to a tune selected by Jan McDaniel in honor of the 80th anniversary of Westminster Presbyterian Church.

The bells ring out, they sing your praise, your grace pro-claimed to all the earth.
You held us fast, you bore us up, as we re- spond - ed to your call.

Your per - fect peace ech - oes through - out our bro - ken lives and har - dened hearts.
The chil - dren sing, the old re - joice, you build a ta - ble, tear down walls.

May hate be ban - ished by your love, may all your chil - dren know their worth,
You bid us eat and drink with you, come to the heav'n - ly ban - quet hall.

May we march on where jus - tice trod, led by the joy you shall im - part.
Where God's own chil - dren find their home, the man - or God pre - pares for all.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

This prayer of confession is taken from the Book of Common Worship of 1946.

Almighty God,
in raising Jesus from the grave,
you shattered the power of sin and death.
We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear,
bound by the ways that lead to death.
We overlook the poor and the hungry,
and pass by those who mourn;
we are deaf to the cries of the oppressed,
and indifferent to calls for peace;
we despise the weak,
and abuse the earth you made.

Forgive us, God of mercy.
Help us to trust your power
to change our lives and make us new,
that we may know the joy of life abundant
given in Jesus Christ, the risen Lord.
Amen.

Assurance of Grace

Since by Adam came death,
by Jesus Christ, clothed in flesh,
came the resurrection of the dead
so that when we die to ourselves
we might be made alive in him through whom God has given us the victory over sin and death.

Friends, believe the good news:
We are always already loved! Thanks be to God!

*Response to the Gift of Grace (No. 581)

GREATOREX

Glory Be to the Father

Glo-ry be to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Ghost; as it was in the begin-ning, is now, and ev - er shall be, world with-out end. A - men, a - men.

*Passing of the Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

*Song of Community (No. 301)

TWO OAKS

Let Us Build a House (v. 1)

Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live,
a place where saints and children tell
how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
all are welcome; all are welcome;
all are welcome in this place.

Prayer for Illumination

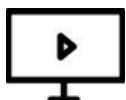

First Reading

Joshua 4:1-7

The Word of the Lord.

At this point, we will be transitioning to a live stream

Second Reading

Thanks be to God!

Sermon

Rev. Landon Whitsitt

What do these stones mean?

*Affirmation of Faith

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Worship Flowers are dedicated to the glory of God and given in celebration of the 80th Anniversary of Westminster Presbyterian Church by five women to honor church members who have dedicated their time and talent to the spiritual formation of our children and youth. Many remarkable individuals have nurtured them through Mother's Day Out, Kingdom Kids, Sunday School, VBS, youth groups, confirmation and so much more. These faithful adults shared their faith, love and patience with the youth at Westminster over the past 80 years.

The Apostles' Creed (ca. AD 180-750)

Developed between the second and ninth centuries as a baptismal creed for the new Christians, this is the most popular creed used in worship by Western Christians. Its central doctrines are those of the Trinity and God the Creator. Banner: Color Brown: The difficulty and rigor of early Christianity under persecution; Purple Arches: Entrances to caves or catacombs where early Christians met in secret; The Anchor Cross: Security in Christ, as found by the apostles, some of whom were fishermen; The Fish: An ancient symbol for the Christian faith; The Chalice: The Lord's Supper; The Upside-Down Cross: Peter, who in legend is said to have been crucified upside down because he thought himself unworthy of a death like his Master's.
