Preparing for Worship

Call to Worship

God's covenant with creation is clear:

Death will not rule us.

But what felt for generations like a far-off promise
God made real through incarnation.

Death will not rule us.

Resurrection is not only something that happened long ago, and it is not only something that awaits the moment of our death.

God is breathing life into dry bones. Even here, even now.

Death will not rule us.

*Hymn of Praise God of the Living

MELITA

God of the liv - ing, in whose eyes un - veiled thy whole cre - a - tion lies,
Re - leased from earth - ly toil and strife, with thee is hid - den still their life;
Not spilt like wa - ter on the ground, not wrapped in dream - less sleep pro - found,
Thy word is true, thy will is just; to thee we leave them, Lord, in trust;

all souls are thine; we must not say that those are dead who pass a - way, thine are their thoughts, their works, their powers, all thine, and yet most tru - ly ours, not wand - 'ring in un - known de - spair be - yond thy voice, thine arm, thy care;
and bless thee for the love which gave thy Son to fill a hu - man grave, from this our world of flesh set free; we know them liv - ing un - to thee.

for well we know, where - 'er they be, our dead are liv - ing un - to thee.
not left to lie like fall - en tree; not dead, but liv - ing un - to thee.
that none might fear that world to see where all are liv - ing un - to thee.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you
with our whole heart and mind and strength;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Assurance of Grace

Hear these words from the prophet Jeremiah, in the book of Lamentations:

"The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness."

God's mercy comes fresh each day:
through words we know
and words we read for the first time, in voices long trusted and voices only now being heard.

Friends, believe the good news:

We are always already loved! Thanks be to God!

*Passing of the Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Song of Community (No. 301)

TWO OAKS

Let Us Build a House (v. 1)

Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live,
a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
all are welcome; all are welcome;
all are welcome in this place.

The Hope That Would Not Die

Affirmation of Faith

From The Confession of Belhar

We believe

- that God has revealed himself as the one who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people;
- that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged;
- that God calls the church to follow him in this; for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry;
- that God frees the prisoner and restores sight to the blind;
- that God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger, helps orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly;
- that for God pure and undefiled religion is to visit the orphans and the widows in their suffering;
- that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good and to seek the right;
- that the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need, which implies, among other things, that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream;
- that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands, namely against injustice and with the wronged; that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others.

Therefore, we reject any ideology

- which would legitimate forms of injustice and any doctrine which is unwilling to resist such an ideology in the name of the gospel.

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Confession of Belhar (1982) Adopted by the PC(USA) in 2016

Belhar came from South Africa and took shape in the early 1980s, during the era when apartheid was the official policy of the white controlled government and of the white, Dutch Reformed Church in South Africa. The Confession of Belhar offered a theological challenge to apartheid from Christians of color in the Dutch Reformed Mission Church. Approved by that denomination in 1986, Belhar named division based on race as sin, and called Christians and the Church to ministries of reconciliation and justice.

Belhar has three central points: Unity, Reconciliation, and Justice. It is structured like the Theological Declaration of Barmen. There is a biblical affirmation followed by a rejection of false teaching. The Presbyterian Church USA adopted this Confession at the 222nd General Assembly in 2016.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Our Primary Allegiance: Following Christ First
- When Faith and Politics Collide
- Rediscovering the Church's Witness
- Speaking Truth with Grace
- Living as Peacemakers in a Divided World
- Hope for the Church's Future

Each evening includes thoughtful teaching from Landon, discussion, and practical ways to live out our faith in today's world.
