3rd Sunday after Pentecost

Prelude

Chiming the Hour

Preparing for Worship

Call to Worship

We come today from all kinds of weeks.

Some of us are full and some of us are running on empty.

God has room for all of it,

whatever this week has made of us.

So let us offer God our honest praise.

An honest heart is what God desires.

Come, let us worship:

not as we should be, but as we are.

Hymn of Praise (No. 803)
My Shepherd Will Supply My Need

RESIGNATION

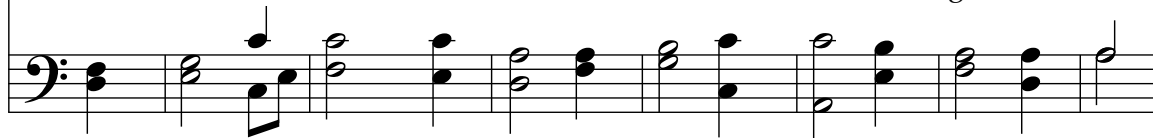

1 My shep-herd will sup - ply my need; Je - ho - vah is his name.
2 When I walk through the shades of death your pres-ence is my stay;
3 The sure pro - vi - sions of my God at - tend me all my days;

In pas - tures fresh he makes me feed, be - side the liv - ing stream.
one word of your sup - port - ing breath drives all my fears a - way.
O may your house be my a - bode, and all my work be praise.

He brings my wan - dering spir - it back when I for - sake his ways,
Your hand, in sight of all my foes, does still my ta - ble spread;
There would I find a set - tled rest, while oth - ers go and come;

and leads me, for his mer - cy's sake, in paths of truth and grace.
my cup with bless - ings o - ver - flows; your oil a - noints my head.
no more a strang - er, or a guest, but like a child at home.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways
to the glory of your holy name.
Amen.

Assurance of Grace

Hear these words from the prophet Jeremiah,
in the book of Lamentations:

"The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness."

God's mercy comes fresh each day:
through words we know
and words we read for the first time, in voices long trusted and voices only now being heard

Friends, believe the good news:

We are always already loved! Thanks be to God!

*Response to the Gift of Grace (No. 581)

GREATOREX

Glory Be to the Father

Glo-ry be to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Ghost; as it was in the begin-ning, is now, and ev - er shall be, world with-out end. A - men, a - men.

*Passing of the Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

*Song of Community (No. 301)

TWO OAKS

Let Us Build a House (v. 1)

Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live,
a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
all are welcome; all are welcome;
all are welcome in this place.

Prayer for Illumination

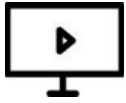

First Reading

Luke 4:16-21

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God!

Sacred Space

Transition

At this point, we will be transitioning to a live stream of worship in the Sanctuary.

Second Reading

Tobit 3:1-6

Then with much grief and anguish of heart I wept, and with groaning I began to pray: "You are righteous, O Lord, and all your deeds are just; all your ways are mercy and truth; you judge the world. And now, O Lord, may you be mindful of me and look favorably upon me. Do not punish me for my sins or for my unwitting offenses or for those of my ancestors. They sinned against you and disobeyed your commandments. So you gave us over to plunder, exile, and death, to become the talk, the byword, and an object of reproach among all the nations among whom you have dispersed us. And now your many judgments are true in dealing with me according to my sins. For we have not kept your commandments and have not walked in accordance with truth before you. So now deal with me as you will; command my spirit to be taken from me, so that I may be released from the face of the earth and become dust. For it is better for me to die than to live, because I have had to listen to undeserved insults, and great is the sorrow that attends me. Command, O Lord, that I be released from this distress; release me to go to the place of eternity, and do not, O Lord, turn your face away from me. For it is better for me to die than to see so much distress in my life and better not to listen to insults."

Holy wisdom, holy words.

Thanks be to God!

Sermon

Rev. Landon Whitsitt

Faithful in a Foreign Land

Affirmation of Faith

adapted from The Confession of 1967

The new life takes shape in a community in which people know that God loves and accepts them in spite of what they are. They therefore accept themselves and love others, knowing that no one has any ground on which to stand except God's grace. The new life does not release us from conflict with unbelief, pride, lust, fear. We still have to struggle with disheartening difficulties and problems. Nevertheless, as we mature in love and faithfulness in our life with Christ, we live in freedom and good cheer, bearing witness on good days and evil days, confident that the new life is pleasing to God and helpful to others.

SUMMER SERIES

ALWAYS ALREADY LOVED: A BRIEF INTRODUCTION TO THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

This summer, Waypoint is spending three months with one big question: what does the Christian faith actually confess, and why does it matter?

We'll be reading and discussing Pastor Landon's new (short!) book, Always Already Loved, which walks through the Presbyterian Brief Statement of Faith line by line- exploring what it means to belong to God, who Jesus is and what he's still doing, and how the Holy Spirit is at work in and through the church right now.

Every participant will receive a copy of the (short!) book ahead of time. Come having read the assigned section. Come with questions. Come even if you're not sure you believe any of it yet.

WE BELONG (INTRO AND CHAPTERS 1-4)

June 14 | 6:00pm | Chicken Shack2Go

We start where the confession starts: "In life and in death we belong to God." We'll talk about what it means that belonging comes before belief, and then follow the confession into the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

WE TRUST IN GOD (CHAPTERS 5-7)

July 12 | 6:00pm | WPC Parlor

The confession turns to the God Jesus reveals- creator, covenant-maker, faithful parent. We'll explore what it means that God created the world good, that we rebel and hide, and that God's response to our failure is "yet."

THE SPIRIT AND THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH (CHAPTERS 8-12)

August 9 | 6:00pm | WPC

The confession gets practical. We'll talk about what the Holy Spirit is actually doing- in justification, in Scripture and sacraments, in giving the church courage to pray, witness, unmask idolatry, hear silenced voices, and work for justice. We'll end where the confession ends: "Nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God."
