Palm Sunday

Prelude

Chiming the Hour

Preparing for Worship

Call to Worship

Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

We will wave our palms and sing our praises.

But the road ahead leads through the storm.

Through wind and wave, through trial and loss.

Take heart. The God who calms the sea is with us still.

We will not be afraid. We will follow where Christ leads.

*Hymn of Praise (196)

ALL GLORY, LAUD, AND HONOR

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have praised you in the sunshine and abandoned you in the storm, trusting your power only when the seas are calm. Have mercy on us, O God.

We confess to you all our past unfaithfulness. Especially today, we confess that our faith falters the moment the wind picks up and the waves rise around us.

Have mercy on us, O God.

Accept our repentance for the wrongs we have done. For shouting Hosanna with our lips while hedging our commitments with our lives, for following Christ only as far as the road feels safe, and for forgetting that you are sovereign even over the storm, accept our repentance, O God.

In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed (ca. AD 180-750)

Developed between the second and ninth centuries as a baptismal creed for the new Christians, this is the most popular creed used in worship by Western Christians. Its central doctrines are those of the Trinity and God the Creator. Banner: Color Brown: The difficulty and rigor of early Christianity under persecution; Purple Arches: Entrances to caves or catacombs where early Christians met in secret; The Anchor Cross: Security in Christ, as found by the apostles, some of whom were fishermen; The Fish: An ancient symbol for the Christian faith; The Chalice: The Lord's Supper; The Upside-Down Cross: Peter, who in legend is said to have been crucified upside down because he thought himself unworthy of a death like his Master's.

ECO-PALM SUNDAY

They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the King of Israel!"
John 12 : 12-13

Today in celebration of Palm Sunday, our congregation has partnered with the Presbyterian Hunger Program to use Eco-Palms - A branch truly worthy of celebration.

Eco-Palms are harvested in a sustainable manner. Harvesters are trained to gather only quality palm fronds in a way that allows the plant to keep growing. The palms are then brought to a community processing building, where the palms are processed and packaged for export.

By contrast, in conventional harvesting, workers are paid based on volume. The more fronds they cut, the more income they generate, encouraging over-harvesting and threatening the rainforest. Middlemen then transport the palms out of communities for processing, where more than 50% of the palms are discarded because of poor quality.

Eco-Palm communities process the palms themselves, capturing more of the profits, improving local communities' standard of living, and ensuring that the money paid for the palms benefit those who labor. They have built a processing building to improve working conditions, provided scholarships to students, paid a teacher's salary, and supported elderly members of the community.

As we raise our branches today, we play an important role in protecting forests, local jobs, and sustainable livelihoods in harvesting communities.
