Walk Softly

Bob Chilcott (b. 1955)

When we assemble here to worship God, to sing His praises and to hear His word we will walk softly. With purity of heart; and with clean hands, our souls are free, we're free from Satan's bands we will walk softly. While we are passing thro' the sacred door, into the fold where Christ has gone before, we will walk softly. We'll worship and bow down we will rejoice and when we hear the Shepherd's gentle voice we will walk softly, softly, softly, we will walk softly.

*Call to Worship

The Lord is our light and salvation,
whom shall we fear?

When the Spirit calls us forward into uncertain places,
we go trusting the One who has gone before us.

Even now, Christ sets his face toward the road ahead.
Let us follow, knowing that we do not walk alone.

*Hymn of Praise (No. 816)

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have chosen the comfort of acquiescence over the harder work of building relationships that transcend differences and disagreements.

Have mercy on us, O God.

We confess to you all our past unfaithfulness. Especially today, we confess our impatience with those who cannot meet us where we are and our unwillingness to meet others where they are.

Have mercy on us, O God.

Accept our repentance for the wrongs we have done. For walking away from communities that need and nourish us, for abandoning authenticity for assimilation, and for forgetting that even on his journey to the cross, Jesus refused to abandon communities that condemned him, accept our repentance, O God.

In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

*Affirmation of Faith

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed (ca. AD 180-750)

Developed between the second and ninth centuries as a baptismal creed for the new Christians, this is the most popular creed used in worship by Western Christians. Its central doctrines are those of the Trinity and God the Creator. Banner: Color Brown: The difficulty and rigor of early Christianity under persecution; Purple Arches: Entrances to caves or catacombs where early Christians met in secret; The Anchor Cross: Security in Christ, as found by the apostles, some of whom were fishermen; The Fish: An ancient symbol for the Christian faith; The Chalice: The Lord's Supper; The Upside-Down Cross: Peter, who in legend is said to have been crucified upside down because he thought himself unworthy of a death like his Master's.
