

MARY HULL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION (MHMS)

Mary Hull was very faithful in the Beulah Baptist church as well as the Central Hudson Baptist Association. She was the Servant Leader of the Courtesy Ministry, where she started the Praise & Prayer Breakfast.

When the doors of the church were open, you could count on Mrs. Hull to be there. She loved helping and serving others. Sis. Mary Hull was the President of the Deaconesses Ministry and Senior Choir, as well as a dedicated member of the Mass Choir.

As a young woman, she attended Savannah State College in Savannah, GA. Mother Hull, as she was affectionately known, also attended Community Bible Institute and served at Beulah Baptist Church as a Sunday school teacher. Mrs. Hull loved education.

In 2003, the Mary Hull Memorial Scholarship (MHMS) was established and funded by her daughters (Jacquette Bottoms, Clarissa Goins, and Gwendolyn Undly). The $1,000 scholarship will be awarded to a student who is actively involved in the Beulah Baptist Church Ministry and Community outreach, reflecting the love of God and a genuine love for others in the community.
