FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHAT IS DM2?

DM2 (Disciple Makers Multiplied) is an organization that trains young adults to teach expositionally through books of the Bible. The team is based in Texas (from their 3D training center) and travels all Summer to churches to provide teaching! Their theology is extraordinarily sound and grace-based. We've had several FBC alumni go teach their and the founder is from our area as well. The Nazworth family. We partnered with them 5 years ago to offer this, and it's been very fruitful ever since!

Their team will arrive the weekend prior and be around campus all Sunday morning to invite the students in Sunday school and engage any parents that would like to meet them!

ARE ADULTS INVOLVED IN THE TEACHING?

They will be covering Galatians this year, and the teachers will be all young adults aged 18-25 but also including a few of our very own high-schoolers that have been trained by DM2 to do the same!

WHAT IS THE SCHEDULE FOR THE WEEK?

It's 8:00 AM - 4:00 PM every day (M-F) in our youth area. With breaks (plus lunch) every hour and a half or so!

CAN THEY COME TO SOME OF IT BUT NOT ALL OF IT?

They can absolutely come for some or all of it! It will build on itself but they also get a manual provided with blanks to fill in for each day so it's easy to catch up if missed.

DOES IT BUILD ON ITSELF FROM DAY TO DAY?

It will build on itself but they also get a manual provided with blanks to fill in for each day so it's easy to catch up if missed.

WHAT SHOULD STUDENTS BRING EACH DAY?

They should bring a Bible, reusable water bottle, and wear comfortable clothes.
