

I. GENERAL GUIDELINES

- Guys and girls will not sit with each other during the bus trip.
- Everyone is expected to attend all meetings. This means that everyone should be doing what everyone else is doing. The scheduled activities are not optional.
- When it's time for lights out, it means that all students should be in their rooms and it's time for lights to be out.
- No guys in girl's dorms. No girls in guy's dorms.
- During the land and pool Rec times, you must follow the Facility Safety Rules.
- Phones are not allowed at Deeper Camp. If your student brings their phone, their small group leader reserves the right to confiscate it until the end of the week.
- Be aware that you are personally responsible for damages to facilities.
- If you are sick and cannot go to recreation time, you need to have an adult leader accompany you to see the medical staff.
- No practical jokes, pranks, or bullying will be tolerated. These will result in your student being sent home immediately at the expense of the parent. This is a zero-tolerance policy.
- No sneaking out of your room during the night. Attempting to do so will result in your student being sent home immediately at the expense of the parent. This is a zero-tolerance policy.
- You must stay with your small group leader at all times. (Exception times and designated areas will be explained once we arrive at camp.)
- Christ Place Church and Rock Eagle reserve the right to search any room at any time.
- Do not leave the camp.
- Do not go hiking.
- Do not swim or canoe in the lake.
- Respect all student staff and leaders. If they ask you to do something, do it.
- Be respectful of other people.
- Have a great, Christ-like attitude with no whining or complaining.
