Greetings from the Campana's your ambassadors to Juarez, Mexico.

Family News – We celebrated Sylvia's 62 birthday at our church on August 30th (see foto). We are planning on celebrating my Dad's 100th birthday this December 4th!

Ministry news – Summer was very busy. In July, our church held its sixth annual VBS event with eighty kids and fifteen adults, many of whom received Christ as Savior. Next our church sponsored her first full week of teen camp in the beautiful mountains of Creel, Chihuahua. PTL thirty-seven teens from our church attended with two teens, Arlen and Lily Huerfano accepting Jesus as Lord and Savior, and Axel Galindo and Carlos Perez surrendering to full-time Christian service. Then in the month of August we had our first ever Music Camp with twenty-one students learning to play keyboard, guitar, flute, trumpet, and violin. A group of ten Christian friends from Monterrey, Nuevo Leon came to instruct our youth for five days, ending with a concert in which their parents came to see their kids perform. Our New Believer's discipleship class has grown to fifteen students on Sunday mornings, fruit of our Thursday and Friday soul-winning outreach in nearby neighborhoods. Personally, I am giving home Bible studies to another two families during the week. In other news, Sylvia and I are giving Bible Institute classes to twenty-one students on Tuesday evenings. I am teaching Homiletics and the Christian Home and Sylvia is instructing Women in the ministry. Seven others of our youth are attending Bible colleges in San Luis Potosi and Mexico city, two of them our freshmen, Axel Galindo, and Karen Sanchez. Lastly, we praise the Lord for those who have been saved and baptized in our services at Liberty Baptist Church, among them are Ernesto and Mayra Esparza, Jonathan and Kayla Roman, Marco Antonio Lopez, Miguel Bacilio, Mayam Jimenez and her sons Brandon and Logan. One interesting story is of Señora Mayela Salvador who earnestly sought God in the Catholic church but felt empty. One day she passed in front of our church and felt something tugging at her heart. She attended our church service and was gloriously saved. She is one of the members of our New Believer's Discipleship class.

Please pray for property, for more precious souls to be saved and baptized, and for our new believers to grow spiritually. Thank you for your prayers and support!

For His glory, Jim, Sylvia, Becky, Andrew and Lucas, and Danny Campana
