

Romans 3:21-31

1. In 3:21, the righteousness of God has been made manifest apart from the _____
2. In 3:21, what do the Law and the Prophets bear witness of?

3. In 3:22, the righteousness of God can be seen through _____ in Jesus Christ.
4. In 3:23, who has sinned and fallen short of the glory of God? _____
5. In 3:24, how are all people justified? _____
6. In 3:24, where is redemption found? _____
7. In 3:25, who put forward Jesus as a propitiation? _____
8. In 3:25, what is "propitiation"? _____
9. In 3:25, what did God do in his divine forbearance?

10. In 3:26, God's righteousness at the present time shows what two things about God?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
11. T/F – In 3:27, boasting is excluded because of the law of faith. _____
12. T/F – In 3:28, one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. _____
13. In 3:29-30, God is the God of both Jews and Gentiles because God is _____
14. In 3:30, the circumcised are justified _____ faith, and the uncircumcised are justified _____ faith
15. T/F – In 3:31, faith should overthrow the law. _____
16. In 3:31, What should be upheld? _____