

Romans 8:18-30

1. In 8:18, what is not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us?

2. In 8:19, what waits with eager longing? _____

3. In 8:19, what is creation waiting for? _____

4. In 8:20, what was created subjected to? _____

5. In 8:20-21, what are two things that the creation hopes for?

a. _____

b. _____

6. In 8:22, how is the groaning of creation described? _____

7. In 8:23, who else is groaning along with the creation? _____

8. In 8:23, Paul says that we have the first fruits of what? _____

9. In 8:23, the “wait eagerly for adoption as sons” is connected to what?

10. T/F – In 8:24, in this hope we will be saved. _____

11. T/F – In 8:24, you cannot hope for what you already see. _____

12. In 8:25, how do we hope for the things we wait for? _____

13. In 8:26, who helps us in our weaknesses? _____

14. In 8:26, what do we not know how to do? _____

15. In 8:26, how does the Spirit intercede for us? _____

16. In 8:27, the Spirit intercedes according to what? _____

17. In 8:28, what can we know about those who love God?

18. In 8:28, those who love God are called according to what? _____

19. In 8:29, those whom God foreknew, He predestined to be what?

20. In 29-30, what are the five actions by God connected to those who love Him?
